New Books Listed At County Library

"Uneasy Lies the Head" by Hussein, King of Jordan. To his political thought, Hussein adds entertaining accounts of his English schooling and his marriage to the daughter of an English colonel.

"Castro's Cuba" by Nicolas Rivero. The author, a former associate of Castro, gives a history of the revolution to the present and assesses the dilemma of the U.S. faced with a choice of armed intervention or the slow unsure effects of financial aid to South America.

"Don't Just Stand There" by Inez Robb. A collection of brief, witty essays from the author's syndicated newspaper column in which she ranges over such topics as culture in Kansas City, loving families, politics, Christmas and cheerleading.

"Rebel in Paradise" by Richard Drinnon. The biography of Emma Goldman, a colorful anarchist whose activities spanned the period from 1887 to 1940.

"The Man From Missouri" by Alfred Steinberg. The life and times of Harry S. Truman.

"The Old West in Fact" edited by Irwin R. Blacker. An anthology of Western literature.

"What to Tell your Child About Birth, Illness, Death, Divorce and Other Family Crises" by Helene S. Arnstein. This book suggests how family crises may be handled in ways least damaging, psychologically, to a child.

"The Psalms for the Common Reader" by Mary Ellen Chase. The author suggests ways and means for more intelligent and more pleasurable reading of the Psalms.

"Coach's Guide to Modern Basketball Defense" by Garland F. Pinholster. A complete handbook of defensive basketball tactics and strategy.

"The Contemporary English Novel" by Frederick R. Karl. A comprehensive study of the main currents in the English novel since Joyce.

"The No Cooking Cookbook" by Lillian Langseth-Christensen. A cookbook for those who love good food with maximum pleasure and minimum effort.

"The Shattered Glass" by Jean Ariss. A memorable novel of an alcoholic, a talented architect wrecked in childhood by an indifferent mother and a rich, dominating father.

"Voyage to Santa Fe" by Janice Holt Giles. A historical novel that takes the reader along with the hero and his new bride as they head through rough Indian country, he bossing a wagon train of trade goods.

"The Evil Wish" by Jean Potts. A novel of psychological suspense. "Scared" by Bruce Lowery. A 13-year-old boy is tormented by his schoolmates about the scar on his lip, the relic of an harelip.

July 25 Date Slated For Elks All-Star Contest With Madras

The Nyssa Babe Ruth baseball team lost its contest last Friday evening to Vale with a 3-0 tally. Batteries were Mike Kodama and Bobby Smith.

In a makeup game with New Plymouth Monday the Nyssa boys edged out the Idaho team by an 11-10 score in an extra inning. Brad Burningham, starting pitcher, was relieved by John Moore in the third inning. Smith was behind the plate.

Mike Kodama hit a home run during the Monday evening contest, the first and only homer for the Nyssa boys this season.

The first in the double-elimination Elks All-Star games will be against Madras area Babe Ruthers beginning at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, July 25, in Pendleton. The all-star games will be broadcast over radio station KSRV, according to Jerry Myrick, coach.

In addition to Kodama, John Moore, Gerald Wyckoff, Myron McCrady and Pat Moss of Nyssa, other all-star players are from Vale and Ontario.

A double-header practice session against Baker was staged last

Service Award Given At State Garden Club Meeting in Portland

At the meeting of State Federation of Garden clubs, Mrs. Gerrit Stam received a certificate of merit for five years of service as district director for Malheur county.

The three-day meeting was held recently at Multnomah hotel in Portland. In addition to Mrs. Stam, other members of the local ANK club who attended included Mmes. Dale Ashcraft, Ira Price, Sr., and Frank Holub.

Mrs. Robert Keller of Vale was installed as new district director for Malheur county, replacing Mrs. Stam.

The camera club of Forest Grove presented an outstanding program, Mrs. Stam reported. She said she enjoyed the entire meeting, but the program alone was well worth her trip to Portland.

The group showed color slides of hill scenes in Germany with record accompaniment by Mario Lanza singing "Hills of Home." Other films included steel mill scenes taken in Germany and "Kitten Capers," presented with appropriate music. The program ended with mountain scenes and a

NEWMAN WINS CONTEST

Stan Newman won the long drive contest for his age group at the Elks Golf tournament in Enterprise over the weekend. Newman and his partner, Art Cornwell of Ontario, won the sweepstakes.

Others on the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Garrison, Mrs. Newman and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Bybee. Mrs. Garrison and Mrs. Newman visited Mrs. Weldon Ferguson, formerly Mary Norcutt, at the Weldon Ferguson cattle ranch.

recording of "Poets and Peasants Overture."

Mrs. Stam said the camera club of Forest Grove is considered one of the outstanding organizations of its type in this country. Members attended a convention in the spring held at San Francisco and were invited at that time to show their slides in eastern cities.
