Margaret Ann Carlstrom, Gary Noble Wed in Ontario Lutheran Church Rites

MR. and MRS. GARY WESLEY NOBLE

Pilgrim Lutheran church in Ontario was the scene of an 8 o'clock evening ceremony performed Saturday, July 27, 1963, uniting Miss Margaret Ann Carlstrom and Gary Wesley Noble.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Carlstrom of the Lincoln Heights community. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George W. Noble of Portland.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Carlstrom wore a linen dress of beige and white. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a frock of yellow brocade taffeta. Their corsages contained palae-nopsis orchids, feathered white carnations and yellow fascination satin.

A castle cake, topped with miniature newlyweds, centered the refreshment table at a reception held in the church basement following the ceremony. Hostesses were the Misses Emma and Minnie Schultz, assisted by the Mmes. William Leder, Al Toedter, Bill Anderson, Harry Burkhardt and Chris Freese.

In charge of serving were Mrs. Leslie Hathaway, the bride's aunt; Mrs. Easter Geertsen, aunt of the bridegroom; Mrs. Thomas Noble, cousin of the bridegroom and Mrs. O. L. Brannan, the bride's aunt.

Mrs. Robert Fisher, cousin of the bride, was in charge of guest registration. Gifts were accepted and placed by the Misses Gloria Kieselhorst, Carol and Gwen Toedter and Twila Hathaway, the bride's cousins.

Three of the grandmothers were in attendance, including Mmes. A. L. Hutchinson, C. L. Klinkwitz and Agnes Noble. Other out-of-town guests included those from Portland, Eugene, Arago, Bend, Beaverton and Drewsey, Ore.; Boise, Idaho, and Riverside, Calif. The bride was graduated from Ontario high school and Oregon State university. Her husband was graduated from Cleveland high school in Portland and also from OSU in Corvallis.

Following a wedding trip along the Oregon coast, the newlyweds are at home in Portland where they plan to assume teaching duties at beginning of the school year.

The bridesmaids carried cascading bouquets of feathered coral carnations. The bouquet carried by the maid of honor was similar in design but contained turquoise carnations. All were tied with coral satin ribbon.

Michelle Saito, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed similar to other lady attendants, and scattered coral rose petals down the aisle. Candlelighters were Kenneth Carlstrom, the bride's brother, and Debra Hathaway, her cousin.

Best man was Norm Fauteck, while ushers were Thomas Noble, cousin of the bridegroom; Roger Grabinski and Gary Crook, all of Portland.

Judith Ann Roberts Has Ninth Operation

Miss Judith Ann Roberts, 15-year-old daughter of former Nyssans, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Roberts, Sr., of Ontario, underwent bone surgery Tuesday at St. Alphonsus hospital in Boise.

This was Judy's ninth operation since contracting polio in 1949 while a resident of Nyssa. Her mother reports that she is getting along satisfactorily, but on Wednesday was still suffering a lot of pain from the bone repair.

Judy's room number at St. Alphonsus is No. 378. Her home address in Ontario is 128 NW Eighth street. Her mother stated that she will be elated to hear from her Nyssa friends.
