Receive Caldwell Rodeo Tickets

Tuesday evening all 4-H and FFA members and leaders received free tickets to the Caldwell Nite Rodeo. Wednesday morning they all were treated to a free breakfast on the College of Idaho campus.

All the Apple Valley members and their families picnicked Thursday on the C of I campus. On Friday, the last day, all 4-H and FFA members who had livestock for sale took them to the Davis Sales yard for the auction.

On Monday the Apple Valley 4-H club entertained the Ten Davis Wranglers at a swimming party in the Parma park. Here they planned their float for Fort Boise Days parade and Miss Virginia Reynoldson distributed county awards.

First-year members received 4-H rings; second-year members, 4-H necklaces or knives; third-year girls, 4-H pencils; third-year boys, T-shirts with 4-H emblems; fourth-year members, identification bracelets; fifth-year, bill-folds.

Miss Booth Named Princess

Carol Ann Booth, a 4-H club member of Apple Valley, was chosen as a princess to attend Fort Boise Days Queen Connie Johnston of Ten Davis.

Brenda Bay, Marilu Wilson and Sandra Hill left with the Girl Scouts Sunday morning on a four-day camping trip at McCall. Sharon Gibson of Nampa and Billie Cook of Denver were Friday overnight guests in the Dwight Seward home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hawkins and family of Lewiston were Sunday dinner guests of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sells and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Fuller and family of Boise were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson. Cathy and Pam stayed with the Wilsons for a longer visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hopper of Midvale were Aug. 11 dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dibble. At the evening church service they had their daughter, Claudie Sue, christened.

Mrs. Flossie Anderson and Delphine of Estacada, Ore., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chet Iams. They also visited with Mrs. Dora Anderson of Parma.

4-H Clubs Prepare Float

The Apple Valley and Ten Davis 4-H clubs worked together Friday to prepare a float for the Fort Boise Days parade.

Mrs. Lexie Teague and Minerva of Woodward, Okla., left recently after visiting her sister, Mrs. A. F. Seward, and other relatives. They will visit a son, Martin Teague at Lakeview, Ore., before returning to Oklahoma. While they were here, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Seward entertained with a lawn dinner. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Seward, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Seward, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Seward and the Rev. and Mrs. Frank Cook and Billie of Denver, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rathman of Ontario were Tuesday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Poppe.

The Rev. and Mrs. Frank Cook and Billie were recent house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Seward. They are visiting other relatives in Nampa this week.

Pitmans Hold Reunion

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Callahan and daughters of Dallas, Ore., were recent three-day house guests of her parents, the Charles Pitmans. Before leaving, Mrs. Pitman entertained for them with a family dinner. It was the first time in years that all the children were home at the same time. Those present included Dr. and Mrs. Callahan and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Pitman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pitman and sons of Boise.

Mrs. Freda Sanders and Jack of Moses Lake, Wash., were guests for several days last week of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Springen.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Boston and daughters of Vancouver, Wash., were overnight guests last Thursday in the Earl Boston home. They were also visitors that evening in the homes of Mrs. Sara Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Smalley were Saturday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hays in Parma. The dinner was in honor of Mrs. Hays' sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Farrell of Madera, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Al Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Stockham and children, all of Caldwell, and Richard Grimes of Hagerman, Idaho, were also guests.

Mrs. Robert Jackson of Nampa has been a house guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Seward. Her husband has been attending the National Air Guard camp in Boise the past week.

Caldwell Services Conducted Tuesday For Bernel Maybon

Funeral services for Bernel Maybon were conducted Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 20, 1963, at Flahiff chapel in Caldwell with the Rev. Kenneth Armstrong officiating.

Mr. Maybon succumbed Saturday at his home following an extended illness.

He was born June 20, 1893, in Fullerton, Neb., a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Maybon. He grew up, attended school in that vicinity and came west to Idaho approximately 30 years ago.

He was united in marriage to Eva Franks on July 19, 1943, in Emmett. They resided in Caldwell where the deceased was employed for 20 years as a heavy equipment operator for Canyon county.

Mr. Maybon retired three years ago and the couple moved to the Kingman Colony area on route 1, Nyssa.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by three stepsons, Hiram (Ham) Franks of Mountain Home, Ernest (Pete) Franks of Nyssa and Stanley Franks of Pendleton.

Also surviving are three brothers, Grover Maybon of Fullerton, Mort and Clark Maybon of Homedale, Idaho; three sisters, Mrs. Ellen Ruff of Los Angeles, Mrs. Florence Ray of Nitomo, Calif., and Mrs. Grace Walsh of Nampa.

Interment was made in the cemetery at Wilder. Pallbearers

LOCAL COUPLES ATTEND IDAHO LP GAS CONVENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Wilton Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson attended a three-day Idaho Liquefied Petroleum convention this week at McCall. Gov. Robert E. Smiley gave the address at the Monday luncheon and John Hagen of Jerome was guest speaker on Tuesday. His talk was on "LP Gas in Saudi Arabia."

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and Jackson returned home Tuesday evening and Mrs. Jackson remained in McCall to assist with the Girl Scouts who are camping there this week.

PURCHASE WILDMAN HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Easton recently purchased the J. E. Wildman home at 517 North Sixth street. The Easton couple and their three children are in the process of moving from 104 Locust street. The family came to Nyssa earlier this year from Hagerman, Idaho. Easton is a member of the Idaho Power company's staff of workmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Wildman, now residing in Portland, were guests in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jennings and girls, while making the business transaction. They were accompanied to Nyssa by their grandsons, Pat and Benny McKinney, also of Portland.
