

White and Yellow Hues Predominate At Wanda Long, M. Maynard Rites

MR. and MRS. MASON JAY MAYNARD
—Portrait by Schoen.

Miss Wanda Mae Long became the bride of Mason Jay Maynard during a ceremony performed at 8 o'clock in the evening on Saturday, Aug. 17, 1963, at Faith Lutheran church in Nyssa.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max H. Long of Nyssa. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rex Caskey of Vale.

Before the altar, graced with arrangements of white gladioli and candelabra containing lighted white tapers and yellow bows, the Rev. John Milbrath performed the double-ring rites in the presence of 125 guests.

Vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Max Dane, accompanied by Mrs. John Milbrath.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of nylon organdy, fashioned with basque bodice, designed with long tapered sleeves and sculptured neckline edged with scalloped lace. The bell skirt, containing deep inset of lace with accents of lace roses, swept into a brush train.

A bow of nylon organdy held her shoulder-length bouffant veil of illusion and she carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis on a lace-covered Bible.

The Misses Karen Kent and Arlene Sewright attended as maid of honor and bridesmaid, respectively. Their sleeveless gowns of yellow dacron were designed with bell skirts and they also wore matching half-veils of nylon net. Their arm bouquets were of white gladioli and yellow ribbon.

Mike McGinnis served as best man, while head usher was Raymond Maynard, brother of the bridegroom, assisted by Jerry Long, the bride's brother. Mrs. Paul Shaw, twin sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of guest registration.

A divided four-tier cake, trimmed with bells, silver leaves, yellow roses and topped with miniature newlyweds, centered the refreshment table at a reception held in the church basement.

The reception room was decorated with white wedding bells and crepe paper streamers. Mrs. Alice Neiger and Mrs. Walter Looney were in charge and were assisted with serving by the Misses Mary K. Olsen, Jo Ann Handley, Janelle Neiger and Lois Spitze. Mrs. Ben Storm, Judy Wilson and Lucille White accepted and placed the gifts.

The new Mrs. Maynard was graduated from Nyssa high school and Kinman business school in Spokane. Her husband is a graduate of Vale high school and is presently attending Spokane Technical and Vocational school where he is studying electronics.

For their wedding trip to McCall, the bride wore a linen suit of moss green and white with white accessories and the corsage which centered her wedding bouquet.

The newlyweds will reside at 6618 East Second avenue in Spokane.
