Nyssans Win Awards at Malheur Fair

ON THE LEFT IS JOE HITE of the Owyhee community who resides on route 1, Nyssa. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hite, is a 4-H club member and attends Adrian schools. He was a blue ribbon winner in 4-H swine fitting and showmanship, having placed first for intermediate and reserve champion. He also received a blue ribbon on his junior gilt and a grand champion award for his mature sow pictured here. Van Schulthies, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Schulthies, route 2, Nyssa, proudly poses with his grand champion market lamb. The winner is a member of the Nyssa FFA chapter. The animal netted its owner a trophy and $50 cash award from the Idaho Statesman. The fat lamb was purchased by Manager Henry Zobell on behalf of Amalgamated Sugar company for $3 per pound during the stock sale held last Friday evening. These pictures were taken Saturday by a Journal photographer at Malheur county fairgrounds, Ontario.

RETURN FROM VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Paul House, Bonnie and Butch returned home Sunday evening from a 10-day vacation trip to Colorado. Enroute they saw the Colorado state monument in the western part of the state and visited his brother, the Lloyd House family at Montrose. They were guests of their mothers, Mrs. Daniel Schutts and Mrs. Lydia House in Colorado Springs and visited other relatives and friends at Denver and Kiowa.

They returned home via Jackson Hole, Wyoming and Yellowstone park.

DURING CLEANING . . .

Most of the soil in sheer curtains is loose dust which will tumble out if you put them in an automatic clothes dryer without heat. After 10 minutes they're ready to put back up again. Use this smart trick in between washings.

FHA Group Approves Constitution Change, Plan Future Projects

New FHA officers met Tuesday, Aug. 27, at the Wilton Jackson home for a combined dinner and business meeting.

The new officers approved several changes in the chapter constitution, a new budget and FHA booklet covers. Plans were made for the yearly topsoil drive. The magazine sales project was discussed, with Janice Burns and Nadine Spitz chosen as team captains and Ellen Saito as general overall chairman for the drive.

A brief review of the duties of each officer was given by Lynn Jackson, FHA chapter president. Programs for September, October, November and December meetings were also planned by the officers.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Wilton Jackson, chapter mother; Mrs. Charles Steffens, FHA adviser; Lynn Jackson, Janice Burns, Marilyn Gonyer, Arleen Okano, Ellen Saito, Sharon Cottrell, Nadine Spitz, Cherie Okano, Mary English, Susan Schenk, Judi Moncur, Marcia Wyckoff, Jeanie Seuell, outgoing FHA president and her guest, Karen Deleazal.
