SAFE and SOUND...

a feeling you have about First National checks

A First National checking account is better than cash in your pocket-book, because it changes worry and doubt to a safe and sound feeling. Nobody but you can spend the money represented by your check. If you lose your checkbook, it is only a scratch-pad to anyone else. Equally important is the record-keeping factor. When you pay by check, you have an automatic receipt for money paid out, plus the handy reference of your own check records.

At First National Bank, efficient, well-trained people use the most modern business machines to process your checks with speed and accuracy. You get a statement each month which reports the status of your account with every transaction completely detailed, yet it is wonderfully simple and easy to read.

First National customers use several types of checking accounts. Whichever type you choose, it comes with built-in convenience and that safe-and-sound feeling.
