Parents' Tea Held

By First Grade Class

A parents' tea was held Oct. 8 in Mrs. Gladys Engelhardt's first grade classroom with 18 mothers in attendance. Hostesses for the event were Mrs. George Hirai and Mrs. Wallace Prowell.

A get-acquainted game was played by asking each other questions about themselves. Most were identified when they revealed their husband's occupation.

Mrs. Engelhardt talked to the mothers regarding school-parent policies and relationships.

GUESTS IN WERNICK HOME

Mrs. Minnie Aldridge of Smelterville, Idaho, grand chief of Pythian Sisters, and Mrs. Eula Chilcott, Kellogg, past grand chief of the organization, were Tuesday luncheon and overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wernick.

SIXTH GRADE STUDENTS

HONOR PARENTS AT TEA

Students in Mrs. Hazel Lane's sixth grade class held their parents' tea on Oct. 3 with almost every mother present. Also in attendance were one father, several grandmothers and a number of small children.

Mrs. Rulon Trost and Mrs. Carlton W. Spittler served refreshments from an appropriately decorated tea table.

ARRIVE FROM BILOXI

Airman Second Class and Mrs. Royce Roberts arrived home last Thursday afternoon from Biloxi, Miss., where he had been stationed since April 1. Following a month's leave, he will go to Japan on a two-year assignment.

RETURNS FROM TRIP

Doris Knoedler returned home recently from a month's visit with relatives in Corvallis, Salem and other cities in western Oregon.

Utah State Sorority

Selects Miss Staples

Miss Bonnie Staples, a student at Utah State university in Logan, has been selected for Phi Upsilon Omicron, a national professional organization, according to information received by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rulon Staples.

Purpose of the organization is to establish and strengthen bonds of friendship, to promote the moral and intellectual development of its members and to advance and promote home economics.

Miss Staples was chosen on the basis of leadership abilities, professional attitude and scholarship. It is required that members be in the upper two-fifths of the class and have a major in the college of family life.

Miss Staples is a junior majoring in home economics education. She was graduated from Nyssa high in 1961 as class valedictorian.

Newell Heights Youth on Clerk Duty

During Recent Moore Hotel Robbery

Newell Heights—Michael Pratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Pratt of the Newell Heights area, was the night clerk on duty at Moore hotel in Ontario when it was robbed at 4:02 a.m. Oct. 6.

Two masked men, wearing hunting caps pulled down over their ears and white scarves over their faces, went through the north entrance and confronted Pratt with a pistol. Both men wore gloves.

Thomas Ayres of Huntington was in the lobby and they forced him to lie face down on the floor in the office while they emptied two cash registers and put the money in a plastic shaving kit. Then young Pratt was forced to lie down near Ayres and both were told to remain there.

The phone leads to the switch box were severed and the thieves got away with $377 in currency.

VISIT FRIENDS HERE

Steven, Susan, Chris and Tim Wilson, children of the Harold Wilsons who recently moved to Homedale, spent a recent two-day school vacation with friends and relatives here. Steven visited Mrs. Dorothy Wilson and family, Susan was a guest in the Robert Wilson home, while Chris and Tim visited the Wilton Jacksons.
