

Activities of Malheur Butte Church Groups Told by Rural Correspondent

By Ruth Robbins

LINCOLN HEIGHTS—On Oct. 19 the Blue Mountain Conservative Baptist association met at Haines. Mrs. Bruce Hunt of the Vale church presided over the women's organization meetings. Mrs. Paul Halverson and Mrs. Harlan Meyer were messengers from the Malheur Butte church.

On the evening of Oct. 26 Malheur Butte church was the scene of youth night for entertaining the Baptist church young people of the area. Miss Diane Walz led the group in singing and a Bible quiz.

James Tilson of New Plymouth Conservative Baptist church sang "I Believe." A film, "Teens Telling Teens," was shown. Those churches represented were Baptist churches of Payette, New Plymouth, Weiser, Willowcreek and the local church.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Sayers served refreshments.

Malheur Butte Women's Missionary Fellowship group met on Oct. 24 with Mrs. John Stohler. Mrs. Harlan Meyer led Thanksgiving devotions with scripture from Psalms 100. The hostess served refreshments at the close of the meeting.

On Oct. 25 five ladies from this area attended a meeting of valley churches' Women's Missionary Fellowship at New Plymouth Conservative Baptist church. Attendees at the all-day session included Mmes. Bill Walz, George Barnes, Harlan Meyer, John Stohler and Bruce Hunt.

The meeting opened with a devotional service, followed by noon luncheon. Mrs. Graden Broyles of Klamath Falls, statewide White Cross worker for Conservative Baptist Women's Missionary Fellowship, spoke during the afternoon.

Century class of the local Baptist church was in charge of the Oct. 27 worship service at the Vale rest home. Mrs. D. L. Hurst led the group in singing. The Harlan Meyer family sang "O, How I Love Jesus" and Floyd Tilson of Emmett delivered the sermon.

Mrs. John Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Whitsell, is now working in Ontario. She arrived recently from Long Beach, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bennett and family of Baker hunted in the area and visited Oct. 27 in the Brock Robbins and Clifford Harris homes.

Club Group Takes Tour
Patch and Chat club was represented by 15 ladies Oct. 24 when they spent the day touring Mountain States Telephone company building in Payette. Miss Anderson, chief operator, conducted the tour. The ladies had noon luncheon at Maude Owens' cafe, stopping next at Marshall Fixture company. The club met again that afternoon for a tour of the Argus-Observer office.

Recent evening dinner guests at the Clifford Harris home were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kerns of Waterloo, Iowa, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Solterbeck of Payette.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barnes and Joel left early Oct. 25 for Pasco, Wash., to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barnes. They returned the following day.

Return From Nebraska
Mr. and Mrs. Vern Smith arrived home Oct. 25 from a trip to Nebraska. In New Castle they visited her 81-year-old mother, Mrs. Sena Nelson, other relatives and friends. Enroute home they also visited in Omaha.

4-H HEALTH CLUB MEETING HELD BY SIXTH GRADERS

A 4-H Health club meeting was held last Friday in Mrs. Neida Schenk's sixth grade classroom. President Jeanine Saito presided during the business portion. The pledges were led by Ladana Talbot.

Students presented a skit on good posture. Those participating were Dallas Frederiksen, DeAnn Peterson, Teresa DeMinck, Ladana Talbot and Julie Elguizabal.

Group singing was led by Nancy Bale. Mark Hartley was in charge of playing a game, "Muddy Waters."

D. Patterson Named District Treasurer At FFA Conference

Nyssa high school FFA officers went to Baker Oct. 28 to attend a leadership conference. Other schools represented were Halfway, Baker, Ontario, Adrian and Vale.

State FFA officers were on hand to conduct a training session for officers of the various chapters.

During the business meeting, 1963-64 district officers were chosen with Doug Patterson being elected treasurer.

A state officer visited each school the following day. Randy Martinak, state secretary, visited the local high school and talked to each FFA class.

Customer: I'd like to buy that hat in the window.

Store clerk: "That's not necessary. I'll sell it to you over the counter."

SIXTH GRADE STUDENTS HONOR PARENTS WITH TEA

Students in Mrs. Neida Schenk's sixth grade classroom held a parents' tea last Monday. Floral arrangements and decorations in autumn colors of brown and orange were used throughout the room.

After a mixer, refreshments were served by Mrs. Larry Saito and Mrs. Roy Hirai, room mothers. Activities for the year include three parties and a field trip to the sugar factory.

STUDENTS VISIT IN AREA

Gary Thompson, accompanied by Jim Kodama and Gene Jones of Oregon State university, spent the weekend in the Nyssa area. The students visited their parents and spent much of their time pheasant hunting. Parents of the boys are Messrs. and Mmes. Herschel Thompson, Kody Kodama and Allen Jones. The students left Sunday for Corvallis to resume their studies.
