

Artistic Arrangements

"CHRISTMAS SPLENDOR" reigned indeed during the annual Yuletide show staged Saturday and Sunday afternoon in the Nyssa Methodist church social hall by members of the ANK Garden club. These ladies are only a few of those who gave of their time and talents to display many artistic Christmas arrangements, ranging from religious to whimsical, solely for the viewers' pleasure. The women are (left to right) Mrs. Dale Ashcraft, Mrs. Maurice L. Judd, Mrs. Gerrit Stam and Mrs. Bernard Eastman. In the foreground is the refreshment table graced with a lovely floral arrangement, candles and numerous varieties of homemade Christmas cookies which were served with coffee and punch. The ladies estimated that over 200 visitors called during the two-day show and included those from a number of towns throughout the valley.—Staff Photo.

Gail Ann Baird To Become Bride Of Dennis Spitze

GAIL ANN BAIRD
... To Wed Dec. 28

The engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Gail Ann, was announced last week by Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Baird of Klamath Falls, Ore.

On Dec. 28 she will become the bride of Dennis Spitze, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Spitze of the Arcadia community near Nyssa.

Miss Baird has attended Oregon State university in Corvallis for three years. Her fiancé is a graduate of Nyssa high school and of OSU where he was affiliated with Alpha Kappa Lambda fraternity.

The couple will be wed in the Methodist church at Klamath Falls and will be honored on Jan. 2, 1964, with a reception in the Nyssa Methodist church. They then plan to enroll at the University of Oregon for further study in psychology.

A pre-Thanksgiving dinner was served Sunday, Nov. 24, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Chester, Colin and Ricky. Guests were Mrs. Chester's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gooder, Sr., of Wilder; her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Gooder, Jr., of California; a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Leatherman and Pat of Boise; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shaffer and children, also of the Idaho capital city.

Lady Eagles Slate Yule Party, Initiation For Dec. 17 Meeting

Jean Ricks, representative from KSRV radio station, explained the cash register slip savings program at the Dec. 5 meeting of the Eagles auxiliary. Members of the organization voted to take part in the contest.

Other projects discussed included the children's Christmas party and it was decided not to hold it this year. The ladies, however, are planning a family night for the near future.

Next meeting to be held Dec. 17 will be an auxiliary Christmas party with one dollar gifts to be exchanged and a birthday party for members having November and December anniversaries. A business meeting and initiation will begin at 8 o'clock.

Refreshments will be provided by Greta Broad and Wanda Trost.

Mystery Fathers Party Held by Job's Daughters

Annual dinner and Christmas party was held Sunday by Job's Daughters for their mystery fathers. With ham as the main dish, dinner was served to approximately 90 persons including mystery fathers, their wives, bethel and council members.

Mystery dads were revealed by matching two halves of a Christmas card, one-half being held by the men and the other by the girls.

Following dinner, a short program was given, including a piano solo by Jane Timmerman and a skit directed by Delores Morris. Members of the cast were Vicki Newman, Marilyn Gonyer and Cookie Cole.
