Amber McCay, Gary Webster United In Colorful Holiday Wedding Rites

MR. and MRS. GARY G. WEBSTER

—Portrait by Schoen.

Poinsettias and Christmas boughs provided the altar setting at a recent wedding ceremony uniting Miss Amber McCay and Gary G. Webster.

The double-ring rites were performed Sunday, Dec. 15, 1963, by the Rev. Elmer Rosenkilde at Kingman Memorial Presbyterian church in Adrian.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Leo Campbell of Hometown. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Webster of Adrian.

Mrs. James Phifer provided organ music and also accompanied Mrs. Marilyn Waite who sang "Because" and "At Dawning."

Given in marriage by her stepfather, Leo Campbell, the bride wore a gown of white satin, fashioned with bouffant skirt flowing into a chapel train. The fitted bodice was designed with scalloped, round neckline and lace-trimmed, long-tapered sleeves.

Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls and she carried a bouquet containing three white orchids, encircled with Hawaiian anthuriums.

Attending her niece as matron of honor was Virginia Hoyle, while bridesmaids were Betty Hamilton of Cottage Grove, Shirley Sutherland of Seattle, Mrs. Melvin Sessions, the bridegroom's sister, and Mrs. Don Gillespie of Fresno, Calif.

Their gowns were of red taffeta fashioned with bouffant skirts, net overskirts and trimmed in velvet. Their accessories were red mitts, red-net headresses and red shoes.

Flower girls were Debbie

Campbell and Rose Mary Waite, while Kelly Campbell served as ringbearer.

Attending as best man was Melvin Sessions, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Ushers were Albert Sillonis, Billy Hoyle, Larry Holmes and Billy Van DeWater.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Campbell wore a dress of blue taffeta and blue accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a frock of moss-green knit and green accessories. Each wore a white orchid corsage.

A four-tier wedding cake, decorated with swans, white bells, red flowers and topped with miniature newlyweds, centered the refreshment table at a reception held in the church basement following the ceremony. The table was also graced with red and white candles and floral arrangements.

Members of the Mariners club were in charge of serving. Pouring coffee and punch were Mrs. Kenneth Price and Mrs. James Phifer, with Elizabeth Mutch of Ontario cutting the cake.

Out-of-state guests included those from Boise, Caldwell, Nampa, Meridian and Hometown, Idaho, and also Seattle, Wash.

The newlyweds both attended Adrian high school. For their wedding trip to the Oregon coast and into California, the new Mrs. Webster wore a green suit trimmed in mink.

The couple will reside in Adrian. He is presently employed at Ore-Ida Food company plant in Ontario.

Katherine Klinkenberg, D. Freeman Wed in Aumsville Church Services

MR. and MRS. DELVIS C. FREEMAN

Holiday wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Katherine Klinkenberg and Delvis C. Freeman during an 8 o'clock evening ceremony performed Dec. 27, 1963, in Bethel Baptist church at Aumsville, Ore.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Klinkenberg of Nyssa. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Freeman of Salem.

Basket arrangements of red and white blossoms, Christmas wreaths and a flocked Christmas tree adorned with red ornaments provided the altar setting for the candlelight ceremony performed by the Rev. Jerry Larson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of beau de soie, fashioned with boat neckline and long tapered sleeves. Matching bows began at the fitted bodice and cascaded down the front of the side-pleated full skirt.

A tiara of scalloped pearls held her shoulder-length veil. Her bouquet of white rosebuds and carnations was carried on a white Bible and she wore a ruby lavanter belonging to a great-aunt, Mrs. E. U. Quinley.

Miss Ilene Lewellen, cousin of the bride, attended as maid of honor, while bridesmaids were Miss Linda Blair, Mrs. Leonard Nickels of Salem and Mrs. Larry Ferrel of Ogden, Utah.

Their identical gowns of Christmas green velvet were styled with flared skirts, boat necklines and with them they wore matching accessories. Each carried a ball-arrangement of red and white carnations.

Candlelighters were Miss Eva Mae Klinkenberg, the bride's sister of Nyssa, and Miss Cyndee Smith of Salem.

Stanley Peterson of Salem served as best man, while ushers were the bride's brother, Daniel Klinkenberg of Ft. Monmouth, N.J., Robert Ruby of Moscow, Idaho, and Douglas Hilton of Corvallis.

A reception followed in the fellowship room of the church with Mrs. Keith Showers and Mrs. Gene Garland, sisters of the bridegroom, cutting the cake.

Pouring were Mrs. Earl Sager of Mt. Vernon, Wash., and Mrs. Marion Klinkenberg of Portland, both aunts of the bride. Others assisting with serving, guest registration and gifts were Sherri Sager and Kary Sturdy, cousins of the bride; Mrs. Jim Klinkenberg, Mrs. Vaughn Witzel and Miss Jan Parker.

For their wedding trip along the Oregon coast, the new Mrs. Freeman wore a suit of burnt sienna, fashioned by her mother. With it she wore matching accessories and a corsage of white roses. The newlyweds are now at home at 750 Mill street SE, in Salem.
