Cheryl Zesiger and Gary Costley Wed In Rites at Faith Lutheran Church

MR. and MRS. GARY EDWARD COSTLEY —Portrait by Schoen.

Miss Cheryl Jeanne Zesiger became the bride of Gary Edward Costley in a 4:30 o'clock early evening candlelight ceremony performed Dec. 21, 1963, at Faith Lutheran church in Nyssa. Pastor John Milbrath officiated during the double-ring rites witnessed by approximately 70 guests.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cleaver of route 2, Nyssa, and Mrs. Verna Costley of Homedale, Idaho.

A winter bouquet of white chrysanthemums and red poinsettias graced the candle-lighted altar. Mrs. Tom Nishitani was soloist and was accompanied by Miss Janelle Neiger.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of antique white brocade, fashioned with bell-skirt, scoop-neckline and three-quarter-length sleeves. The waistline was accented with a set-in midriff extending to a bow in the back. Her chapel-length veil fell from a wedding cake tiara and she carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of white orchids and red ribbon streamers.

Miss Harriett Cleaver attended her sister as maid of honor. She was attired in a dress of red velvet and carried a Christmas bouquet of white carnations, silver balls and red ribbon streamers.

Donald Costley, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man, while ushers were Roger Barnes of Nyssa and Donald Scott of La Grande.

The bride's mother wore a beige brocade afternoon dress with beige and brown patent accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in an off-white two-piece afternoon dress with beige patent accessories and each wore a corsage of white orchids.

Miss Nancy Reiman of The Dalles was in charge of guest registration.

A reception was held in the church following the ceremony with Mrs. Alfred Adams, aunt of the bride, in charge. A three-tier white wedding cake, graced with red roses and topped with white satin bells, was cut by Mrs. Harriett Cleaver.
