By BERNICE STRAWN, Extension Home Management Specialist

CHILDREN OFTEN GET SO MANY NEW TOYS

... for Christmas they don't know which one to play with next. Mrs. Roberta Frasier, family life specialist for OSU Extension service, suggests that old favorites be boxed and stored on a high shelf. New ones can be kept within the child's reach.

Mothers will find this helps keep the house more orderly and when excitement of new toys wear off, the old ones will furnish the needed change.

"OUR BABY SITTER PUT WET DIAPERS

... on our hardwood floor and now there is a dark stain." We were asked what could be done.

These stains are permanent. The only remedy is refinishing. In the future, keep vinegar water handy for sponging immediately. Then rinse, dry and re wax.

HOW DO YOU CLEAN A DOWN COMFORTER?

... Dry cleaning is usually best. If you take it to the coin-op cleaner be sure to check every seam for broken stitches and the fabric for any weakness. The vigorous action of the equipment may open up weak spots.

LOOKING FOR WAYS TO CUT GROCERY BILLS?

... "About 40 cents out of your food dollar goes for protein-rich main dishes," says Mrs. Velma Seat, food marketing specialist for OSU Extension service.

One way to reduce costs is to look for less expensive protein foods which can be used as an alternate for, or in combination with meats.

Best buys are dry beans, peanut butter, cheese and eggs. Variety meats also provide protein at a savings. Three-fourths cup of cottage cheese, four ounces of American cheese or five tablespoons peanut butter give one-third the protein you need for the day.

IF YOU'RE A PARENT

... of a young child who seems unwilling to share his toys, write us for the extension leaflet, "About Sharing."

In the leaflet, Mrs. Roberta Frasier, extension family life specialist at OSU, tells how much sharing is reasonable to expect and how to develop a willingness to share.

Sharon E. Tobler, Robert B. Albee Engagement Told

SHARON EILEEN TOBLER
... To Wed Air Force Cadet

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Tobler, former Nyssans now residing in Charlottesville, Va., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Eileen, to Cadet Robert Bruce Albee, Jr. Her fiancé is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Albee, also of Charlottesville.

Miss Tobler is a graduate of Albemarle high school and is studying at College of Mary Washington in Fredericksburg, Va. Cadet Albee is also a graduate of Albemarle high school and is presently attending the Air Force academy at Colorado Springs.

The bride-elect's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hugo J. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tobler, all of Nyssa.

The betrothed couple will be married following Cadet Albee's graduation from the academy.

MATERIAL DEMONSTRATION SHOWN TO 4-H JET SEWERS

Third meeting of the 4-H Jet Sewers was held Jan. 13 after school hours at the home of Mrs. Bill Hamilton. The meeting was called to order by Linda Ballou, president.

Mrs. Hamilton showed the girls cloth samples from which they chose the best for making skirts. Linda Mecham demonstrated how to straighten material and Linda Ballou showed how to shrink material.

A game was played after adjournment of the business meeting.

in a cake, cookies or any recipe where the fat is creamed or cut into other ingredients, oil can't be substituted.

It's true some cake recipes call for oil and in these cases the proportion of ingredients and mixing method are especially designed for oil.

HOW CAN I GET COFFEE STAINS FROM PLASTIC CUPS?

Rub with a paste of soda and water on a damp cloth. Or try full-strength liquid detergent. If these don't do the job, try some of the special plastic cleaners. The hardware, department or grocery store will have them.

DOES HONEY HAVE SPECIAL NUTRITIONAL VALUE?

... Some people think so because it is a "natural sugar." Virginia Weiser, our extension nutritionist at OSU, says the truth is that although a person may enjoy honey, it is no better as body fuel than cane or beet sugar.

Honey carries some iron and B vitamins, as well as small amounts of vitamin C. However, it is not used in large enough amounts to add appreciably to the mineral and vitamin content of the diet.
