COREY HAS EYE SURGERY AT HOSPITAL IN BOISE

Maurice Corey entered St. Alphonsus hospital in Boise Monday and on Tuesday underwent eye surgery. Mrs. Corey reported Tuesday evening that her husband came through the operation in fine shape and said the doctors are well pleased with his condition.

Mr. Corey is in room number 264 at St. Alphonsus.

SISTER OF NYSSANS SUCCEUMBS IN SEATTLE

Word was received Tuesday evening in Nyssa of the death of Mrs. Ida Sissler, 89, at Seattle.

The deceased, a sister of Mrs. Ava Broughton and Miss Myrtle Blett of Nyssa, had succumbed that day. In addition to her sisters, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Bernice Dyke of Salem.

Funeral services will be held in Seattle. At press time, however, the date and time were not definite.

John Deere Company Hosts Nyssans' Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Robb returned last week from a trip to Iowa and Illinois as guests of the John Deere company. They left from Boise by chartered plane along with 21 other John Deere personnel from this area. They arrived in Waterloo, Iowa, went from there by bus to Dubuque and then on to Moline, Ill. The men toured John Deere plants in all three cities while entertainment was provided for their wives.

The Robbs were met at the Waterloo airport by Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Preston and Tony. The latter will be remembered by Nyssans as the youth who was accompanying Garry Wieneke when he was killed in an auto mishap last fall. The Prestons were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robb while their son was hospitalized. The Nyssans were given the trip as a reward for his tractor sales during 1963. Robb is em-

MISS S. HOLMES NAMED TO ALPHA PI EPSILON

Miss Sondra Holmes is among five Eastern Oregon college students named to Alpha Pi Epsilon, national secretarial science honorary.

The student, a 1963, graduate of Nyssa high school, is a freshman at EOC in La Grande. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Holmes of Nyssa.

According to Dr. Sarah C. Stein, associate professor of secretarial science and sponsor of the campus chapter of Alpha Epsilon, students become eligible for the honorary on the basis of work in general academic courses as well as superior secretarial skills.

employed as salesman for B and M Equipment company, local John Deere dealer. Mrs. Robb reports that this was a nationwide offer and by the time the project is completed approximately 6000 persons will have been entertained by the company.
