Community Concert Patrons to See Lola Montes, Spanish Dance Troupe

Lola Montes and her Spanish dancers are scheduled to appear before Community Concert patrons at 8:15 p.m. Thursday, March 19 in the Ontario high school auditorium.

The dancing star has been described as beautiful and beguiling and she heads a brilliant company of virtuoso dancers in an exciting and varied program of classical, folk and fiery flamenco dances, with intriguing excursions into the exotic and comic native dances of Mexico and South America.

They present each number in lavish authentic costumes and accessories, and the result is a lively and eye-filling spectacle which has been appropriately hailed by a Los Angeles critic as "more exciting than a bullfight."

Lola Montes has been winning "oles" in leading concert halls of the United States and Canada, as well as in Mexico, Spain and Hawaii. Guest artist appearances with leading symphony orchestras, and several appearances in the famed Hollywood Bowl, one of them under the baton of Stokowski, have won further renown for this vivacious star.

Film and TV engagements are adding enthusiastic admirers throughout the country for this dazzling and colorful dance attraction.
