Lady Keglers Earn Monthly Top Honors

Mrs. Bert (Stella) Ross, with a 457 series, emerged as scratch bowler of the month for March during the monthly contest staged Sunday at the Sugar Bowl.

Mrs. George (Marjorie) Hust scored a handicap series of 551 to take honors as handicap bowler for March.

These ladies, together with 12 others, have now won trophies which will be presented at the end of the season by proprietors of the local bowling establishment.

BOOTHS MOVE TO WESTON

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Booth and Rita and his brother, Dee, left Friday for Weston, Ore., where they have purchased a grocery and dry-goods store.

The Booths had operated the Sinclair service station in Nyssa for the past three years. Wilbur had worked in Nyssa for approximately 15 years and before coming to Nyssa the family had resided in the Apple Valley community.

HEALTHY 24's MEET

Kenneth Vandewall called the meeting to order when the Healthy 24's 4-H club met Friday in LeVerne Shell's classroom.

Flag salute was led by Nancy Jackson with Jeanne Schoen leading the 4-H pledge.

A report on skin was given by Pamela Labby and demonstrations on hair care were directed by Nancy Jackson and Carla Hust. A report on hair care was also given by Susan Howes.

Prior to adjournment, the game played was "Buzz."

COOKED FOOD SALE SET SATURDAY BY 4-H GIRLS

Nibblers 4-H club is sponsoring a cooked food sale Saturday, April 25, at Peterson Furniture store. The sale will start at 10 a.m. and continue until all items are sold.

Proceeds from the project will be used jointly for the IFYE fund and to send delegates to 4-H summer school at Corvallis.

DOROTHY BIBBEY HONORED WITH SUNDAY CELEBRATION

Sunday dinner guests in the J. W. Rigney home were Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Tresenriter and Dorothy Bibbey of Boise; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pond, Marilyn and Carolyn of Nyssa. The dinner was held in honor of Dorothy Bibbey who was celebrating her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Bibbey, a longtime resident of Nyssa, now makes her home in the Idaho capital city where she is employed at the city disposal plant.

Friends called Sunday afternoon and early evening at the Rigney home to share birthday cake and coffee with Mrs. Bibbey. They are Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Robb, Mr. and Mrs. John Strickland, Cecil Richards and daughter, Janice.

4-H SEWING JETS DISCUSS SPRING SHOW MODELING

Members of the Sewing Jets 4-H club met April 13 in the home of their leader, Mrs. Carl Piercy.

The girls discussed modeling for the spring show.

It was decided to hold a roller skating party on May 2.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting by Mrs. Piercy. Next meeting is planned for April 27 in the Piercy home.

Three Nyssa Scouts Take Racing Honors In Area Competition

One of the biggest Scouting events in the area was held Saturday evening, April 11, at the Ontario armory. The annual Scout-O-Rama was attended by several Cub and Boy Scout units.

Booths showed what the boys had been doing within their units and the public was invited to test its skill.

Most exciting events were the pinewood derby and rocket race. First and second place winners in the derby were Danny Nichols and Mike Lancaster of Nyssa pack 445. The rocket race was won by Randy Froerer of pack 458, also Nyssa.

A car safety marathon was held for Explorer Scouts at 3:30 p.m. and was won by Gary Solterbeck of troop 313, Payette. A cycling marathon for Boy Scouts was cancelled due to weather but will be held at a later date.

Among the 23 units participating were five from Nyssa, listed here with name of scoutmasters: pack 419, George Hirai; troop 419, Tom Nishitani; troop 445, James Sken; troop 458, Darwin Jensen; and troop 450, Virgil Seward.

On behalf of the BSA Ore-Ida council, Elwin Smith, general chairman of the Scout-O-Rama, has asked this publication to thank all persons who helped make the event so very successful.

VISIT IN MILWAUKIE

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Weeks, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Weeks and son of Seneca, spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Duane Weeks and family at Milwaukie.
