Mrs. Foster Attends Meetings for Mothers Of Oregon and Idaho

The American Mothers' association is meeting this week at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York City to select the American Mother of 1964 from state representatives who will be there.

Among those attending are Mrs. Roy (Alice) Harris of Enterprise who will represent Oregon and Mrs. Robert J. Howard, Sr., of Emmett, Idaho Mother. Mrs. W. W. Foster of Nyssa, Oregon Mother of 1958, attended the citation ceremonies for both of these women.

On April 15 Governor Mark O. Hatfield presented Mrs. Harris with a certificate of award as 1964 Mother of Oregon and gave a talk on the value of good homes and understanding mothers. Mrs. Harris is 49 years of age, has four sons, 21 to 27 years of age, adopted twin daughters who will finish high school this month, two grandsons and 10 children who have lived in her home.

In addition to her duties in the home, she helps with church and many community activities. The meeting was attended by about 200 people and was arranged by Mrs. Clarence McCracken of Corvallis, chairman of the Oregon Mothers' committee who select the mother each year from the many candidates nominated. A business meeting followed, attended by 10 former Mothers of Oregon, and officers were elected.

On April 26 Mrs. Howard was honored at a ceremony in the Catholic hall at Emmett where she has lived most of her married life. She has six sons, all prominent citizens; one daughter, 19 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren, most of whom were in attendance.

Mrs. Howard is a registered nurse and also finds time for her Nazarene church and community groups. Four former Idaho Mothers were present. Mrs. May Fodrea of Boise, 1962 Mother of Idaho, gave a history of the Am-
