

Malheur Butte Church Congregation Fetes Members of Cradle Roll Group

By Ruth Robbins

LINCOLN HEIGHTS—Malheur Butte Baptist church congregation honored the cradle roll Sunday, April 19, during Sunday school hours. Mrs. Vern Smith, cradle roll chairman, was in charge of the program. Mrs. John Stohler sang a German lullaby and then interpreted its verse.

Mrs. Amos Nofziger gave a reading entitled "Every Baby Ought to Have a Grandmother." The dedicatory prayer was offered by Mrs. Paul Halverson. Jane Meyer sang "Jewels" and used a flannel graph crown to illustrate her song. Names of the children on the roll were mounted on the crown to simulate jewels. Miss Meyer then led the congregation in singing several appropriate choruses.

The Rev. Richard Haden of Medford, Ore., was the minister for the Sunday morning and evening services. The congregation had a potluck dinner at noon to get better acquainted with the Rev. Haden, his wife and three children. The minister and his family were overnight guests at the Ralph Barnes home.

Connie Carlstrom participated in the Walther league zone talent festival held April 19 at Ontario Lutheran church. She sang a solo, "Exodus," and received third place. Ontario league won the traveling trophy.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Richmond and family called April 17 on Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Reel and family.

Attend PTA Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Kennington and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nelson attended the Oregon state PTA convention recently at Hilton hotel in Portland. They were delegates from Cairo grade school PTA.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pettet returned April 20 from Reno where they had visited several days with her brother, Raymond Dale. They brought their granddaughter, Mrs. Richard Lewis and baby home with them for a visit. Mrs. Lewis is the former Carol Ann Brown and will be staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, during her stay. She lives in Manteca, Calif., and Lewis brought her to Reno so she could make the trip to Oregon.

Cooking Club Meets

Busy Cookers 4-H cooking club members met with their leader, Mrs. Kay Teramura, on a recent Friday afternoon following school. Plans were completed for a cooked food sale. Gayle and Cynthia Teramura demonstrated how to make grandma's favorite butter cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Harris and family were hosts for a wienner roast Sunday evening, April 19. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Klein and boys, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Solterbeck, all of Payette.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davidson of Portland visited recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Ross. Guests in the Ross home to visit Mrs. Davidson were Mmes. Drexell Barnes, Wesley Richmond and Jim Rumble. She was also visited by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Sayers, and an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sayers and family.

Dinner Guests in Boise

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Reel and family were April 19 dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Carpenter in Boise. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Higby were also present. Mrs. Higby is the Carpenters' daughter and her husband has just been discharged from the U.S. Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Sheldon and family called recently on the Brock Robbins family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smelzer and family have returned from Corvallis and Bend. He is looking for work in this area.

Jimmie and Barbara Trenkel, Nancy Robbins, Wendy and Cathy Kennington, students of Mrs. Louis Wettstein, performed at a piano recital Saturday afternoon, April 25, in the Ontario LDS church.

Fellowship Group Meets

Women's Missionary Fellowship of Malheur Butte Baptist church held its regular monthly meeting and Bible study Thursday evening, April 23, at the home of Mrs. Harlan Meyer. Laray Walz gave the lesson entitled "Motives of a Missionary."

Mrs. Vernon Carlstrom went to Pendleton recently and brought her daughter, Betty Jean, home with her.

Mrs. C. N. Mell of The Dalles visited recently with her mother, Mrs. Annie Harris. Her husband and daughter, Carol, arrived Friday to join her. She also visited her sister, Mrs. Ray Whitsell. That evening they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Harris and family in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Whitsell's birthday anniversaries. Before the Mell family left Sunday, Mrs. Clifford Harris entertained the same group with a waffle breakfast.

Celebrates Anniversary

Carrie Robbins celebrated her 13th birthday anniversary Tuesday evening, April 28, with traditional ice cream and cake. Her family and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Robbins and Mr. and O. D. Dearborn, were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Brock Robbins and family called recently on the Walt Ross family in Ontario. Recent visitors in the Robbins home were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark King have sold their 40-acre farm to Elwood Flinders. The Kings are moving this week onto the Wardlaw farm which they have purchased.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Perry and family were recent Sunday dinner guests at the Austin Robbins home.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARIES

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnson were Sunday dinner guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sweeney and family in Caldwell. The dinner was in observance of the birthday anniversaries of Pat Sweeney and son, Billy.

GUESTS OF HENDERSONS

Mr. and Mrs. Merilean Robbins and family were Sunday dinner guests at the Ed Henderson home in Apple Valley.

"Not long after a boy graduates as a Cub Scout, he becomes a girl scout."

SIXTH GRADE STUDENTS VIEW ROCK COLLECTION

On April 29 Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Corey showed their rock collection to sixth grade students in Mrs. Hazel Lane's and Elvin Ballou's classrooms.

The two classes are planning a field trip to Succor creek some time this week to study rocks and will be accompanied by Mr. Corey on the excursion.
