CONNER FAMILY VIEWS FLOOD, TORNADO DAMAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Delvin Conner and family returned Saturday from a two-week trip to Nebraska where they visited relatives and friends in and near Ord and Burwell. They were accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Neel of Walla Walla, Wash., who visited her parents at Broken Bow. The travelers report the roads were excellent with very little construction. The weather was hot, however, making driving rather tiring.

Just prior to their visit, three inches of rain had fallen at Omaha causing a flood. Mrs. Conner's brother was trapped by the high water for several hours before being able to return to his home. Help was still needed to clean up the city when the family left for home on June 26. The Nyssans also viewed tornado damage at Wolbach where a Methodist church was destroyed.

Conner reports he was glad to return to "God's Country" and his job at Roberts-Nyssa, Inc.
