County Boat Not Needed

Hewett said he, Chuck Landreth and Cecil Morrison had agreed to let the use of their boats day or night for this and he felt it was senseless to spend money for something that was offered free. He also noted that a county-owned boat would never be at the place needed at the time needed.

Ken Renstrom said there had never been a necessity to rent boats in the Nyssa area for this purpose and he was opposed to using the license money for this purpose. If the county wanted to buy a boat from general funds for patrolling the waters he would not object.

Wilbur Atkins, Republican nominee for sheriff in the November general election, made a few brief remarks in the interest of his candidacy. He said he felt the sheriff's budget could be cut and some additional taxes collected where sales were held and people moved away without paying taxes due.

Smith Family Returns From Stay in Africa

Return on Two Ships

The family returned to the United States in May on the Rhodesia Castle and Queen Mary by way of Suez, Cairo, Port Said, Naples, Rome, Pompeii, Gibraltar, London, New York, Nashville and San Francisco.

They plan to leave Nyssa today for Pullman, Wash., where Smith will be doing graduate work leading to a doctor's degree in zoology and part-time teaching at Washington State university.

The Smiths say they enjoyed their stay in East Africa and hope to return to that part of the world some day.

In Oregon...

On a hot summer day, a dip in a cool stream can be wonderfully refreshing. Equally refreshing when you're relaxing afterwards with friends is a hearty glass of beer. There's hardly another beverage around that suits what you do for fun as much as beer. Camping, hiking, or just lounging on a lawn chair—beer brings to each just the right touch of extra good living.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

In Oregon...beer goes with fun, with relaxation
