

Winkler-Hansen Wedding Ceremony Performed in Church at Tillamook

MR. and MRS. GARY W. HANSEN

—Portrait by Schoen.

A wedding ceremony performed at 7:30 o'clock on the evening of Aug. 8, 1964, at Redeemer Lutheran church in Tillamook, Ore., united Miss Geraldine Winkler and Gary W. Hansen.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Winkler of Tillamook. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jeffers of Springfield, Ore.

The double ring rites were performed by Pastor Edward Lutz of the Lutheran church, Missouri synod. Soloist was Miss Betty Winkler, accompanied by Miss Kathy Krebs.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice, elbow-length sleeves and scalloped scoop-neckline. The lace-trimmed taffeta skirt fell into a sweeping train.

Her bouffant veil was secured to a jeweled crown and she carried a corsage containing a large orchid, encircled with Fujii mums.

Attending the bride were Miss Betty Winkler as maid of honor; Mrs. Mitzi Williams, Mrs. Estelle Acker and Mrs. Connie Hansen as bridesmaids. They were attired in apricot-colored sheath dresses and carried bouquets of white gladioli.

Bill Hansen served as best man for his brother, while ushers were Chaney Kirsch, Ron McLeon and Larry Acker.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Winkler wore a beige sheath jacket dress. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a yellow and white silk print frock. Each wore a white orchid corsage.

Centering the refreshment table, at a reception held in the church following the ceremony, was a wedding cake decorated in hues of peach and green.

Assisting with serving were Mrs. James River, Mrs. Kermit Alexander and Nyssans Mrs. Robert Meisinger and Mrs. Deward Benedict, aunts of the bride.

The new Mrs. Hansen attended Nyssa schools, is a graduate of Tillamook high school and Sacred Heart School of Nursing and is now a registered nurse. Her husband was graduated from Springfield high school and served three years in the U. S. Navy.

The newlyweds are now residing at 1526 Main street, apartment 57 in Springfield where the bridegroom is employed by an ambulance service company.

Gloria Gonyer, C. Kent Mann United In LDS Temple; Feted at Reception

MRS. C. KENT MANN . . . Bride of Parma Man

—Portrait by Schoen.

Wedding vows were exchanged by Miss Gloria Ann Gonyer and C. Kent Mann in a ceremony performed Aug. 14, 1964, in the Idaho Falls LDS temple. President William Killpack officiated during the double-ring rites.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gonyer of Nyssa. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mann of Parma. Following the ceremony a bridal luncheon was hosted by the bridegroom's parents.

The newlyweds were honored Aug. 21 with a reception at the Nyssa LDS stake house with 400 guests in attendance.

The bride chose a gown of white silk organza with applied aliencon lace and seed pearls accenting the bodice and waistline. The full skirt was detailed with applied lace panels flowing into a chapel train. A rose headpiece of lace and seed pearls held her shoulder-length veil of nylon illusion and she carried a bouquet of white Fujii mums and stephanotis.

Miss Marilyn Gonyer attended her sister as maid of honor. Her floor-length gown was of mint green silk organza. She carried an arrangement of bronze Fujii mums. Steven Mann attended his brother as best man.

Mrs. Gonyer's ensemble was of avocado green silk shantung, while Mrs. Mann chose a dress of green lace. Both ladies wore corsages of cymbidium orchids.

Miss Darla Gooch presided at the guest book. Accepting gifts were Cheri Mann and Chipper Burningham. Also helping with the gifts were the Misses Valene Mitchell, Shauna Newton, Cookie Cole and Vicki Newman; and the Mmes. Bill Nielsen and Ron Schoeneman.

Shades of green and bronze were used throughout the reception area. Individual guest tables were decorated with mint green taffeta cloths and Fujii mum arrangements. A floor-length cloth of white nylon tulle and lace adorned the bridal table. On each side of the three-tiered wedding cake were tapered arrangements of mums and candles.

Mrs. Marvin Jefferies served the punch and Mrs. Carl Burningham cut the wedding cake. Also assisting with the reception were the Mmes. Larry Schenk, W. L. McPartland, Robert Wilson and Frances Bates; and the Misses Peggy Lewis, Junia Kay Mitchell, Marilyn Mann, Christine Burningham, Connie Mitchell, Sherry Roberts, Carolyn Seely, Marcie Hill, Joanne Jefferies, Shan Moss.

Providing organ music for the reception were the Mmes. Dwight Wyckoff, Grant Jones and Dellin Erickson. Mrs. Sterling Ellsworth sang two vocal selections during the evening.

The bride attended Nyssa high school, was graduated from Oregon State university and received her master's degree from Brigham Young university. The past year she had been teaching in the Los Angeles area. Her husband attended Parma high school and Utah State university.

The couple will reside in Provo where Mrs. Mann will be teaching at Brigham Young university and her husband will receive his degree next year. They left Sunday for Provo.

Out-of-state guests at the reception included those from California, Utah, Idaho and Colorado.
