MRS. HARRIET BRUMBACH, NHS librarian and counselor, was hostess at an informal tea last Thursday afternoon with visiting librarians and local teachers as guests. Seated (left to right) are Wilma E. Brown, Malheur county librarian, and Marjorie Pomeroy, former county librarian. Standing are Mrs. Brumbach, Clarice Poor, Nyssa elementary principal; Margery Nihart, NHS commercial and art teacher; Mildred Elliot, second grade instructor. The afternoon tea was given in honor of Miss Pomeroy, director of the East Central Regional Library in Cambridge, Minn. She recently received the sixth annual Book-of-the-Month club library award in the amount of $5,000 for purchase of books for the public library of which she is director. Among nine of the runners-up and receiving $1,500 was the Deschutes county library at Bend, Ore. Miss Pomeroy arrived Sept. 16 for a 10-day visit with friends in this area. She served as Malheur county librarian from 1951 to 1958 and then went to Boise where she was assistant Idaho state librarian for two years before taking her present position. Wilma Brown, present county librarian, assumed her post upon Miss Pomeroy's leaving for Boise. She had served as assistant librarian prior to that time. The local teachers in this photo are close friends of the honored guest.—Journal Photo.

Area Director Of Girl Scouts Moves to Nampa

Miss Beverly Ingraham, area director for district 4 of the Silver Sage Girl Scout council has taken up residence in Nampa. Miss Ingraham joined the Silver Sage staff last February.

She attended schools in Boise, including Boise Junior college, and was graduated from the College of Idaho with a major in physical education. For the past eight years she has been teaching in Jerome where she was also assistant leader of a Senior Scout troop.

She has been a counselor at Camp Alice Pittenger for several years and has also counseled at the YWCA camp, as well as being a recreation leader for the 4-H organization at Jerome.

District 4, which Miss Ingraham will service, includes Nampa, Caldwell, Wilder, Parma, Home-dale, Payette, Weiser, Council, Vale, Ontario and Nyssa. The service center for district 4 is at 289 S.W. Seventh street in Ontario and is open every Wednesday. Jan Taylor serves as secretary.

"After a full summer of special training and counseling at Camp Alice Pittenger, I am eager to get acquainted with all of the Girl Scout volunteers in district 4 and desire to extend our fine Girl Scout program to even more girls," Miss Ingraham states.
