L. BERTRAM SUFFERS EYE INJURY FROM BROKEN LENS

Miss Lucille Bertram underwent emergency treatment last Friday evening for removal of glass fragments from her eyes.

Miss Bertram, a drummer with the NHS band, had accompanied the unit to the football game at Emmett and was preparing to board the bus to return home when she accidentally struck her glasses with one of her drum sticks. The left lens shattered, causing about 20 pieces of glass to strike her left eye with about four or five pieces hitting her right eye.

She was rushed to Malheur Memorial hospital by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sisson who called her parents and told them of the accident. Lucille and her mother, Mrs. Willis Bertram, went to Boise Monday to have her eyes checked and to get new glasses.

Nearly a year ago, on Oct. 4, 1963, Miss Bertram suffered serious injuries when kicked in the stomach by a horse. Both accidents occurred on Friday evening.

Young Ladies of Area Urged to Enter 'Make It Yourself With Wool' Contest

Head for the sewing machine, learn the characteristics of wool girls—if you'd make the most of your spare time this fall.

Those stitches—especially if they're in 100 percent wool—could be a ticket to a 14-day European holiday in Paris, London, Rome and Nice, or could win a scholarship, savings bonds or other enticing awards, according to Mrs. John Joyce of Harper, co-chairman of the district's ninth annual "Make It Yourself With Wool" contest.

An Oregon girl—16-year-old Sonya Lozier of Enterprise—has just returned from a vacation to the Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico and Jamaica, her award as 1963 junior champion in the national contest.

District Contest Set Oct. 31

The 1964 competition is already on the calendar. The district contest is scheduled Oct. 31 in Baker; the Oregon finals in Portland on Nov. 9 and the national finals in January at Phoenix.

Most stores as well as the Malheur county extension service have a supply of the 1964 entry forms—yours upon request. Blanks may also be obtained from Mrs. Joyce.

Girls, 10 through 21, are eligible to enter the contest sponsored locally by the women's auxiliary to the Oregon Wool Growers and the American Wool council.

"Of course, the contest has an ulterior motive. But it's one all sewers can appreciate once they
