Numerous Guests Extend Best Wishes At Birthday Event for Nyssa Matron

Mrs. Charles (Ada) Garrison was honored with a birthday anniversary reception given Saturday afternoon by her daughter, Mrs. John (Vera) Olsen in the latter's home at 805 King avenue.

An estimated 75 guests called during the afternoon hours to extend best wishes to the 82-year-old Nyssa matron.

Assisting Mrs. Olsen with serving were Mrs. Charles Newbill, another daughter of the honoree; Mrs. Dale Garrison, her daughter-in-law; Mrs. Harold Kurtz and Mrs. Duane Holcomb, granddaughters; and Mrs. Don Newbill, wife of a grandson.

In charge of gifts were Trudy Olsen, a granddaughter, and Connie Jo Holcomb, a great-granddaughter.

Mrs. Garrison was born Oct. 6, 1882, in Abilene, Kan., to John Franklin Freeman and Amanda Elizabeth Face Freeman, and on Aug. 27, 1902, was married to Charles Garrison.

Move to Nyssa in 1916

After their marriage they resided in Kansas, later moved to Colorado and came to the Nyssa area in 1916. Mr. Garrison succumbed Oct. 27, 1957, at the age of 77 years.

All of Mrs. Garrison's children are still living. They are Louis of Grants Pass, Ore.; Mrs. Charles (Gladys) Newbill who resides near Adrian and teaches school there; Ray, now residing in Lima, Peru, where he was sent by Columbia university as a technical associate in the education field; Dale, who farms near Nyssa; and Mrs. Olsen, wife of a Nyssa dentist. She also has nine grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Garrison resides alone in the long-time family home at 101 South Fourth street in Nyssa. Raising flowers has been one of her favorite hobbies for years and she still works with them as much as she is able. She is apparently in good health for an 82-year-old girl who has retained her good sense of humor and friendly ways.
