Mrs. Wallace Prowell was worship leader and Mrs. Ed Pruyn presented the program entitled "The Real Millionaire."

NOW IF ON SATURDAY, Dick Wilson decides to ride his turkey, that will be one way of getting it over the finish line, but it is doubtful that he will be determined a winner as riding the "fowl" will be a "foul," according to the legal rules. Fred Bennett will probably be on hand, as he plans to enter a turkey in the 2 o'clock derby, but he'll no doubt be thinking of the birds as being plump, fat, juicy and ready to serve.

Mrs. McKinley read a letter from the Oregon State hospital, asking the church for Christmas gifts for their many patients. A box will be placed in the church vestibule for articles to be sent with Dec. 10 set as deadline for this drive. All residents of the community are invited to help with the project. LETTERS To the Editor

Nov. 16, 1964

Gate City Journal
Nyssa, Oregon

Veterans' day on Nov. 11 was a day of marked significance for this nation and for veterans of the Nyssa community.

Congress saw fit to legally set aside Veterans' day in honor of men and women from all walks of life who met the greatest obligation of their American citizenship, that is, honorable service in the nation's armed forces during wartime.

In observing this day, we honored an estimated 30 million men and women who wore uniforms of their country in wartime. Members of Nyssa American Legion Post No. 79 wish to express their appreciation to the Nyssa businessmen for the fact that Veterans' day was observed by them and their employees, by closing their places of business in the Nyssa community that day.
