Job's Daughters Plan Christmas Activities; New Officers Elected

Bethel 33 of the International Order of Job's Daughters held a regular meeting Dec. 3 in the Masonic hall with Honored Queen Marilyn Gonyer presiding.

Main order of business was to elect new officers for the ensuing term. Vicki Newman was named honored queen; Lynda Cundall, senior princess; Trudy Olsen, junior princess; Sheila Huffman, guide; and Teresa Hamilton, marshal.

Honored Queen Marilyn reported that Sunday, Dec. 13, will be Go-to-Church Sunday when all Bethel members will attend the Methodist church. The annual dinner party for girls, their mystery fathers and wives will be held at 1:30 Sunday afternoon in the Masonic hall. Immediately after the party, the girls plan to go to the nursing home wing of Malheur Memorial hospital to decorate a Christmas tree for residents of the home.

Next meeting of the Bethel will be at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Dec. 20, at which time majority degrees will be given for members desiring them.

A caroling party has been planned for Wednesday evening, Dec. 23.

Honored Queen-elect Vicki Newman has announced that Dec. 28 is date for installation of new officers.

Members voted to send a money gift to the State hospital in Pendleton. It was also decided not to enter a float in the Christmas parade due to lack of time to prepare one.
