Silver Wedding Anniversary Event Fetes Residents of Cairo Junction

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Nielsen were honored with a silver wedding anniversary reception given on Dec. 6, 1964, at their home in the Cairo Junction area.

Hosting the open house event were their children, Clifford Nielsen, Jr., of the home, Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Jill) Nelson of Home-dale. The white anniversary cake, in the shape of a Maltese cross, was topped with the miniature newly-weds which graced the couple's wedding cake 25 years ago. The dolls were framed by an archway of lattice work and red roses. The cake was made by the honorees' daughter.

Assisting with serving cake, punch and coffee were Mrs. Emerson Bingham of Fruitland, Mrs. Douglas Benton of Baker, Mrs. Elver Nielsen of rural Nyssa, Mrs. Clifton Nielsen of Othello, Wash., Mrs. Clarence Nelson of Home-dale and Mrs. E. L. McCrady of Nyssa. In charge of registering the guests were Mrs. Arvin Kersey of the Nu Acres community and Mrs. E. W. Prayn of Nyssa. Mrs. Edward Nielsen attended the gift table.

The Niensens were married on Dec. 24, 1939, in the home of her late parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Benton at Nyssa.

They farmed near Nyssa until Jan. 1, 1952, when they moved to the Cairo community. In addition to farming, Mr. Nielsen works for Muir-Roberts as shed foreman.

They have two grandsons, Eddie and Jerry Nelson of Home-

Mrs. Malloy Entertains Pinochle Club Members

Mrs. Jim Malloy entertained last week for members of the Wednesday afternoon pinochle club at their annual Christmas party and gift exchange.

Following luncheon served by the hostess, two tables were in play. Prize winners were Mmes. Bill Schoen, Orma Cleaver, Sam McConnell and Harry Kingrey.

An exchange of gifts concluded the club's activities for the afternoon.

PINOCHLE WINNERS TOLD BY OT GRANGE SPONSORS

A potluck dinner preceded the Saturday evening pinochle party sponsored by Oregon Trail Grange.

Prize winners during the card session were Lulu Lattig and Irvin Lawson, high; Babe Richardson and Harry Kingrey, traveling; Mrs. Harry Kingrey and Bill Schoen, low.

Next pinochle party will be at 8:30 Saturday evening, Jan. 2, in the Grange hall.

Duplicate Bridge Club Plans Master Point Play

Dr. and Mrs. K. A. Danford were high score winners during the Monday evening session of Nyssa Duplicate Bridge club. Tied for second and third places were Dr. L. A. Maulding and Mrs. Ray Russell, Mrs. Bob McKinney and Mrs. Dick Wilson.

Monday evening, Dec. 28, will be master point night for the local bridge group. The public is welcome to attend these weekly card sessions held in the Episcopal church basement.

SUNDAY VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Ewen Chard were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Price in Apple Valley.

Emblem Members Discuss Various Business Issues

Ontario Emblem club No. 192 held its last regular business meeting of the year on Dec. 14 at the Elks lodge. Plans were completed for the annual children's Christmas party held Dec. 19 at the Elks lodge.

The scholarship award was discussed and teachers in Vale, Nyssa, Payette, Fruitland and Ontario high schools are to be advised of requirements for this annual award from the Ontario Emblem club. The group is proud that last year its scholarship winner also received the National Emblem award.

Plans are in progress for the annual Sweetheart ball to be held in February. A colored television set is to be given away the night of the ball. Tickets may be obtained from any Emblem club member or at the Elks lodge. It is not necessary to be present to win.

Following the business meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room to 25 members. Inez Wilson was in charge of refreshments and decorations of Christmas candles and floral arrangements.

Due to the holidays, a social meeting will not be held in December.

Past presidents of Emblem club No. 192 were honored Nov. 23 at a social meeting. Guests were the Mmes. Jay Bybee, Lamont Fife, state Emblem president now living in Pendleton; Dan McCoshum, Pearman Rowe, Bert Anderson and Inez Wilson.

A short history of Emblem club was given by Leo Sears, president of No. 192. She also presented each of the past presidents with a cup and saucer.

Sally Fields, social chairman, conducted a guessing game containing names of the presidents. A centerpiece of purple ribbon chrysanthemums on the refreshment table was designed by Mrs. Sears and the cake was decorated in Emblem colors of gold and purple.

VISIT NYSSA PARENTS

Dan Wilson of Concord, Calif., and Gary Wilson from OSU in Corvallis are spending the Christmas holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Wilson and Cheryl.

EVENING DINNER GUEST

Mrs. R. G. Larson, Sr., was a Sunday evening dinner guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Larson and family.

Job's Daughters Plan Monday Installation

Bethel 33 of the International Order of Job's Daughters held a special meeting Sunday, Dec. 20, in the Masonic hall with Honored Queen Marilyn Gonyer presiding.

It was decided not to have a caroling party but to meet Wednesday evening, Dec. 23, at the hall for a Christmas party and dance.

Honored Queen-elect Vicki Newman announced that installation would be at 8 o'clock Dec. 28 in the Eagles hall with a reception to be held in the Masonic temple. Installation practice will be Saturday afternoon at 3:30 in the Eagles hall.

Delta Kappa Gamma Members Hold Party

Members of Upsilon chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma held their Christmas meeting on Dec. 18 in the Nyssa school library. Pine sprays and lighted red tapers were used as table decorations by Nyssa members who served as hostesses.

Roll call was answered with each one present telling of a family Christmas tradition or an unusual Christmas custom observed in other countries.

After the business session, the group sang carols by candlelight, led by Lucile Cary. This was followed by an exchange of gifts.

Coffee Fetes Mrs. Colby

Mrs. Bill Wahlert entertained with a coffee Dec. 11 in honor of Mrs. Art Colby who left with her family the following day to make their home in Thornton, Colo.

Eight friends of the honoree were in attendance.

Grange Members Hold Dinner and Gift Exchange

A potluck dinner and gift exchange were held last Thursday evening by Oregon Trail Grange members during their annual Christmas party.

Following dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Price, Sr., showed pictures of their recent trip to Hawaii. The group also viewed slides of booster night activities, last year's Christmas party, July 4 picnic, recent new members and those who received 25-year certificates, shown by Mrs. Tom Jones.

Job's Daughters Host Party for Mystery Dads

Members of Bethel 33 of the International Order of Job's Daughters entertained Sunday afternoon, Dec. 13, with a dinner party in honor of their mystery fathers and wives. The meal was served to approximately 85 guests under direction of Mrs. Bill Hamilton and her committee.

Following dinner, a short skit was presented.

Mrs. Danford Hosts Club

Mrs. K. A. Danford entertained last week for members of the Friday afternoon bridge club. Mrs. Jessie Morgan was a guest player. Prizes were won by Mrs. Rex Voeller, Mrs. David Sarazin and Mrs. Bob McKinney.
