Family Pet Missing; Couple Urges Return

Mrs. Clyde Bowers, a visitor at the Journal office last week, reported that their family pet, a Weimaraner bird dog, is missing and is presumed to have been picked up by a duck hunter on the Emerson drain ditch three miles north of Nyssa.

She stated that "Sam" is a friendly dog and likes to ride in the pickup. He is a light sable color (between brown and tan) and was last seen Monday noon, Dec. 28, at the blue house on the corner of Third and Gem avenue.

Mrs. Bowers added that without Sam she and her husband are two lonely people; they have three grandchildren who will be very happy to welcome him home and there will be no questions asked.

The dog's owners may be contacted by dialing 372-2406.

SENIOR CITIZENS SUSPEND MEETINGS DUE TO WEATHER

Members of the Senior Citizens' club have temporarily suspended their meetings due to inclement weather, slippery walks and roads.

It is hoped that the regular sessions can be resumed in the near future and all members will be advised of the next meeting date.

CULBERTSON REPORTS SALE OF TWO APPALOOSA HORSES

Charlie Culbertson of route 1, Nyssa, has reported the sale of an Appaloosa stallion, Draco's Chili Bean, to the Joe and Marie King racing stables in Boise. Sire and dam of the young stallion are Chief Chico's Draco and Owyhee Bow, both Appaloosas, with the bloodline extending back two more generations.

Culbertson also reported that R. D. McKinley had sold a filly to the same racing stable. She is a thoroughbred-Appaloosa cross with three generations of Appaloosa blood on her sire's side.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Fischer attended a New Year's eve party in the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roark in Caldwell.

Mills Reports Dates Of IOOF Installations

Special District Deputy Grand Master Ross N. Mills, a member of the Nyssa IOOF lodge, reports that he will install new officers as follows: Vale, tonight, Jan. 7; Nyssa, Jan. 11; Ontario, Jan. 15. Time for all meetings is 8 p.m. Members of Oddfellow lodges in both Idaho and Oregon are welcome to attend these installation meetings, Mills concluded.

RETURN FROM CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Nora Graham and her sister, Mrs. Rose Harris, returned home Monday evening from an eight-day trip to California. They were guests of friends at Norwalk, attended the Rose parade in Pasadena and visited Disneyland, Marineland and Knott's Berry farm. While at the latter place they met Nyssans Mr. and Mrs. Joe Maughan who are vacationing in California.

Mrs. Graham reports they made the trip by bus. Enroute home they encountered many delays including detours, lay-overs and slick roads.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hamilton and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Strickland and family.
