BANTAMS DEFEAT COACH DURING BOWLING CONTEST

Bantam kегlers bowled in a "Beat Your Coach" contest Saturday, Jan. 23, at the Sugar Bowl, with six lads earning awards by defeating their coach, Kay Brendle.

The winning youths and their handicap series are David Danford, 632; Billy Marcum, 596; David Wilson, 550; Kent Boydell, 545; Craig Holcomb, 541; Kelly Kurtz, 540.

During regular play, David Wilson of the RIME league had high scratch game and series, 169 and 421. Billy Marcum was bowler-of-the-week with a 596 handicap series.

David Danford, a member of Peterson's Bantam league, had high scratch game and series, 204 and 483, and was also named bowler-of-the-week with a 632 handicap series.

Local Junior Bowlers Lose to Ontario Girls

A team of girls from the Ontario junior bowling league came to Nyssa Saturday for a contest with young ladies of the local league. Comprising the visiting team were Vickie Saito, Jean Shuford, Linda Yaguchi and Carrie Saito. Due to illness, they were short one member so a dummy score was used.

Opposing the girls from the neighboring town were Janice McCrady, Vickie Hamilton, Trudy Olsen, Lucille Bertram and Diane Jennings.

Final tally showed the visitors with a 2668 handicap score compared to 2512 for the Nyssa girls. A return match is being planned at Bye Lanes sometime during February.
