

Former NHS Exchange Student Sends Greetings From Philippine Islands

(This letter from Miss Leila Alampay, 1962-63 AFS student, was recently received by the Paul House family with whom the exchange student made her home while studying at Nyssa high school. She asked that the letter be published in the Journal so that she might greet all of her friends. Leila is now receiving the Journal, ordered by the House family as a Christmas gift subscription.)

Dear Nyssa Friends:

I started a letter to the Journal before Christmas, but before I got it finished and even before I knew it, Christmas had come and gone and now we are busy again at the American Field Service office.

Belated Holiday Wishes

It has been said, "It's better late than never," so here are my belated holiday wishes. I was busy at Christmas time and also worried about my Nyssa friends as I read in the papers about the floods in the western part of the United States.

The publications didn't tell very much, but did mention that Washington, Oregon, California and Idaho were having floods. I hadn't heard from anyone but was concerned about Nyssa as it is on the Snake river and not far

LESSON ON CLEANLINESS GIVEN BY 4-H HEALTH CLUB

Sixth meeting of the Happy Health 4-H club was held Feb. 5 in Mrs. Marjorie Mitchell's fifth grade classroom. In attendance were 22 members to discuss the lesson on clean hair and skin.

Fred Child led the class in group singing and a game was played prior to adjournment.

ADDRESS CHANGE NOTED

A postal card was received at the Journal office late last week from Mrs. Fred (Alice) Savage, a former Nyssan. The item of correspondence stated that she had moved from Lake Oswego to Portland. Her present address is 2705 S.E. River Road, Portland 22, Ore.

GUESTS IN BOISE

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Towne visited Sunday afternoon with relatives in Boise.

Piano Pupils to Play In Saturday Recital

Mrs. Barbara Attebery of Caldwell will present her piano student in recital at 3 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 20, in the music room of the Nyssa high school building.

Among those performing will be LaRae and Merla Ashby, Cheryl and Shanna Bishop, Caren, Marsha and Nancy Jackson, Pam McPartland, Juli and Vicky Peterson, Cheryl Wilson and Monica Quinowski.

HEAR REPORT OF ROUNDUP

Girl Scout troop 338 met Feb. 9 at the home of Mrs. Dick Tensen. Half of the girls learned the Girl Scout laws and promise, while the others worked on a project to assist the roundup to be held this summer in Idaho.

Caren Jackson, a delegate to the roundup, was on hand to give a report of the forthcoming event.
