National Auditions Played by Students Of Mrs. Jim Thiel

Leah Henigson, Marcia Wyckoff and Kenneth Spitze, piano students of Mrs. Jim (Patty) Thiel, recently participated in National Piano playing auditions.

The young musicians received local and district honors which the mother organization confers according to the number of standard classic, romantic and modern pieces chosen from the Masters of Piano-forte literature each student creditably performs in the presence of an imported examiner of note.

From coast to coast over 60,000 piano pupils of the nation participated in this annual national piano-playing event being held in 600 music centers of the country. Every creditable entrant is certificated, given a gold or bronze embossed pin, a year's membership in the National Fraternity of Student Musicians and Piano Hobbyists of the World.

Apple Valley PTA Installs New Officers

A large crowd was reported in attendance at the PTA meeting held Thursday evening, April 22, at Apple Valley school.

Chet McArthur, superintendent of schools, installed new officers for the coming year. A talent program was presented by students of the three upper grades under direction of Arnie Finkbeiner and Mrs. Greenway.

The program consisted mostly of fun numbers but concluded with reading of the preamble to the constitution by all upper grade students. During the closing lines, the room was darkened, a spotlight was shown on the American flag and Mrs. Finkbeiner sang "God Bless America."

Mrs. Yoshiye Kora presented a president's pin to Mrs. Helen Seward, who in turn gave Mrs. Kora a past president's pin. A gift was also given to Mrs. Kora by the executive committee.

New and retiring executive officers staged a skit at the close of the installation ceremony. Refreshments were served by sixth grade room mothers.
