

THESE MEN are Ontario city councilmen or members of the board of directors of the golf association. They are standing on the large putting-green in front of the club house, behind a ribbon cut by Ontario Mayor Morgan Beck to officially dedicate the new 18-hole golf course. During the dedication ceremony these men were all introduced by Nyssan Dale Garrison, president of the golf association. Mayor Beck then talked on plans and work on the course and pointed out its benefits to the community. Bob Humphreys served as master of ceremonies. The men are (left to right) Nyssan Stan Newman, member of the golf association board, City Councilman Larry Echanis, Mayor Beck, Garrison, Councilman Leonard Cates, Association Directors John Fowler, Chuck Harland and Joe Ny-singh, Councilman Klass Powell, Director Dan Iseri, City Superintendent Lloyd Castner, Director Lowell Nelson and Golf Pro Vern Burks. Refreshments were served by the women's golf association to numerous visitors, and those desiring were taken on tours of the course in electric carts during the Sunday event.—Journal Photo.

J. Moss Given Award For Jet Plane Design

Jim Moss, a 1965 Oregon State university graduate in the field of mechanical engineering, recently received an award for his jet plane design.

The award was received from the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics with an inscription reading: "Student Branch — Outstanding Achievement Award for the most outstanding contributor to the activities of the student branch at Oregon State university is awarded to James D.
