

Recent Reception at Caldwell Honors Couple Wed in Oakland LDS Temple

MR. and MRS. G. WAYNE CALLISTER

Miss Marvel Stettler became the bride of G. Wayne Callister during a 10 o'clock ceremony performed Friday, May 7, 1965, in the LDS temple at Oakland, Calif. Officiating was Delbert F. Wright, temple president.

Parents of the newlyweds are the A. B. Stettlers of Notus, Idaho, and the W. A. Callisters of the Adrian area, route 1, Nyssa.

On May 15, the couple was honored with a reception held in the LDS church cultural hall at Caldwell, Idaho.

The bride was attired in a floor-length gown of Swiss embroidered lace and crystal peau de soie, designed by her and made by her mother. It was fashioned with straight skirt, empire waistline and long tapered sleeves.

Her shoulder-length veil was held by a small circlet of lace and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses and ribbon streamers.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Annette Stettler, while bridesmaids were older sisters, Mrs. Vernon Tanner and Mrs. Morris Brock. They wore street-length dresses of mint-green dacron and lace, large matching garden hats and carried nosegays of yellow and white daisies.

Lisa Brock, the bride's niece, was flower girl. She was dressed in a yellow frock of dacron and lace, and carried a basket filled with yellow daisies. Eric Tanner, the bride's nephew, served as best man.

Mrs. Stettler wore a suit of beige lace and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a navy blue ensemble. Each wore a carnation corsage.

Two hundred and ten guests attended the reception held in a spring garden setting with arrangements of yellow daisies, lily-of-the-valley and bridal wreath.

Assisting with serving, gifts and guest registration were the Misses Gail Wigand, Evelyn Smith and Lynnoa Batie, who last fall toured the Hawaiian Islands with the new Mrs. Callister. Others assist-

Visitors Attend Monday Meeting Of OES Chapter

Golden Rule chapter 131, Order of Eastern Star, held a regular meeting Monday evening, June 7, in the Masonic hall with Worthy Matron Patricia Marcum presiding.

Discussion was held regarding the amendments which will be voted on during Grand Chapter meetings scheduled June 20-24 at Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Geddes, worthy patron and matron of Blue Mountain chapter 52 at Elgin, were escorted and introduced. Geddes and Paul Penrod are former schoolmates and had not seen each other for 45 years until their Monday night meeting.

Introduced during the session were Mr. and Mrs. George Stankovich, members of Rose Croux chapter 148 in Portland. The couple was on vacation and Mrs. Stankovich had seen Mrs. Marcum in a local store Monday and observed her ring with the Eastern Star emblem. She inquired if Mrs. Marcum was a member of the local chapter and if the unit might be meeting that night. Mrs. Marcum answered both questions in the affirmative and the Portland couple attended the session.

Refreshments were served by Louise Wernick and Mrs. Marcum.

Open installation of officers will be held at 8 o'clock Monday evening, July 12, at the Masonic hall. Lois and George Cartwright will be installed as worthy matron and patron for the coming year.

Nyssa Jobies Attend Ontario Buddy Bethel Installation Service

Several members of Job's Daughters, bethel 33, attended installation services Wednesday evening, June 2, for officers and choir members of their buddy bethel, bethel 25, Ontario.

Cathy Berry is newly installed honored queen of the bethel in the neighboring city. Honored Queen Vicki Newman of bethel 33 served as installing chaplain during the service.

Also assisting with the ceremony were members of Owyhee chapter of DeMolay, of which Nyssans Paul House, Jr., and Jim Ableman are members. The latter participated in the rites.

In addition to Miss Newman, other members of bethel 33 attending the ceremony were Lynnda Cundall, Marilyn Gonyer, Trudy Olsen, Cookie Cole, Christy Nelson, Linda McPartland, Cindy Tracy, Sheila Huffman, Karen Main, Joyce Jennings, Alicia Huffman, Diane Jennings, Linda Root, Jane Timmerman, Deborah Root, Laura Mackey and JoAnn Timmerman.

Adults accompanying the girls were Mrs. Ray Huffman, Mrs. Gerald Mackey, Mrs. Joe Cundall, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jennings. Other Nyssans in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stefens, Mrs. K. E. Kerby and Steve.

WEEKEND CAMPING TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Moncur and Curtis camped during the weekend at Logan Valley near Unity.

ing were Beverly Stettler, Becky Brock, Diane Tanner and the Mmes. John Stewart, Lynn Morgan, Myrtle Smith and John Noyes.

For her going-away ensemble, the bride chose a rust-colored two-piece suit and bone accessories. A wedding trip took the couple to the Monterey Peninsula.

The newlyweds are now residing at 1726 Sequoia, Apt. 5, Burlingame, Calif. The bridegroom is chief accountant in the plastics division for Boise Cascade corporation at San Francisco.

Local Reception Fetes Fife Couple Wed Early in June

Miss Jalene (Jody) Foster became the bride of Dean L. Fife during wedding rites performed May 6, 1965, by President Roy Wood in the Idaho Falls LDS temple.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyn Freeman of Rexburg. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Dean E. Fife of Nyssa.

A reception was held on the evening of the wedding in the Rexburg First LDS ward cultural hall.

On Saturday evening, May 8, the couple was honored with an open house event held in the home of the bridegroom's parents at Nyssa.

For her receptions, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white satin which she designed and made. It was of fitted design, and the hem was outlined with applied lace roses and seed pearls. Attached to the waistline was a long, full train.

Her elbow-length veil of lace fell from a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of peach-colored orchids.

At the local reception, the bride was attended by Debbie and Jan Bunn. Marlo R. Fife served as best man, while ushers were Jay Foster and Terry Rodell.

Mothers of the newlyweds were attired in dresses of pale green, with corsages of peach-colored carnations.

An old-fashioned fruit cake centered the refreshment table. Assisting with serving, gifts and guest registration were the Mmes. Taft Pett, S. R. Mitchell, Gary Fife, A. W. Hendricks, Walter Ashby; and the Misses Sherry Bair, Connie and Diane Fife.

The newlyweds were graduated in the spring from Ricks college in Rexburg. Following a trip into southern Idaho, they are now residing in Preston, Idaho, where the bridegroom is employed by Cal-Pack. This fall they will move to Pocatello where he will attend school.

Give her an ELECTRIC DISHWASHER

Unless she gets an electric dishwasher, she faces the prospect of spending three weeks of each year at the kitchen sink! If you can visualize 45 thousand dishes stacked in a pile, that's a year's requirements for the average family!

So start her out with a gift of freedom from kitchen drudgery with an electric dishwasher. It can save time and work, provide storage so soiled dishes are out of sight, reduce loss by breakage, and wash cleaner. It's far more sanitary than doing dishes by hand. It's the ideal "big gift item" for your June bride!
