

Families Return After Witnessing OSU Graduation Rites in Corvallis

By Mrs. Wilson Witt

NEWELL HEIGHTS — Mr. and Mrs. Jake Borge and Marie returned home June 7 from Corvallis where they witnessed graduation rites for their daughter, Kay Grooms at Oregon State university. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Mary Auker and David who had spent a week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Donald Costley.

On the evening of June 7 Jim and Kay Grooms went to Aberdeen and then to the Rose Bowl in Portland. They returned via Prineville to see if they could secure a house, as Jim will join the junior high school faculty there this fall.

From there they went on to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grooms at Huntington. The two couples then left for Iowa to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. McKinley returned home Friday from Corvallis where they saw their son, James, receive his master's degree at OSU. While in Corvallis, Mrs. McKinley became ill, remained in a hospital for several days and was under observation.

A daughter, Mrs. Jack Earnest, Mary and Susie arrived Friday evening to spend some time in the McKinley home.

Cherrylee Chamberlain attended a recent evening chuckwagon party at the Nyssa LDS stake house.

Attend Caldwell Rodeo

Leslie Topliff took his grandchildren, Marcia and Gregg Topliff, to see the Saturday evening performance of the Treasure Valley Roundup at Caldwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Borge of Klamath Falls were Friday and Saturday guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Borge. The visitors and his sister, Marie, left Saturday evening for Murray, Ky., where they will visit Mrs. Terry Borge's grandparents, a sister and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warren of Parma visited Saturday morning with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Topliff and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete DeBoer, their son, Danny, and a friend of Ontario were June 6 visitors in the home of Mrs. DeBoer's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pratt.

Mr. and Mrs. David Wynn recently spent two days fencing their cattle range near McCall.
