

City Librarian Lists New Reading Available to Patrons of Nyssa Area

According to Mrs. Max Urry, city librarian, the following new books have been added for circulation at Nyssa public library.

"How the United Nations Works" by Tom Galt. This is considered the standard guide to the various parts of the United Nations.

"Always Ask a Man: Arlene Dahl's Key to Femininity" by Arlene Dahl. Miss Dahl gives her readers secrets of the stars and famous beauties.

"A View of All the Russias" by Laurens van der Post. From this eloquent interplay, the reader gains a picture of two great powers—the USSR and the United States—in basic human terms.

"The Sentries" by Ed McBain. A chilling tale of what happens when a group of super-patriots mounts an almost fool-proof scheme to force America's hand in the Cold War and change the course of history.

BIRTH OF INFANT GRANDSON REPORTED BY RIGGS COUPLE

Mrs. Lewis Riggs returned home Monday from San Bernardino, Calif., where she had been visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Manning and family, and helping care for a new grandson who was born June 15 to the Manning couple. The infant joins two brothers and a sister in the home.

Riggs and son, Doyle, returned home two weeks ago after taking Mrs. Riggs to San Bernardino. Enroute to California, the family visited relatives and friends in Utah.

NYSSANS ATTEND WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Stunz, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Stunz and Suzanne attended the Saturday wedding and reception of the former's niece, Marge Kay Stunz, and Severt Swenson, Jr., of Michigan at Boise. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Rudolph Stunz and the late Mr. Stunz. She was graduated this spring from the University of Idaho and plans to teach this winter at Clarkston, Wash., while her husband completes his law course at the University of Idaho.

BRADYS MOVE TO EUGENE

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Brady, Peggy, Kathy and Jerry, former Boise residents, are now located in Eugene where he is district manager for Curtis Industries, an automotive firm. The couple's other son, Chuck, is spending the summer with his grandmother, Mrs. J. I. Brady. Jim Brady of Mountain Home and Douglas Clarkson of Portland are visiting their cousin in their grandmother's home.

NAMED TO STATE POST

Mrs. Fay (Ruth) Collins was elected as madam state conductor at the June 23-25 state convention of Eagles auxiliaries held in Salem.

Among others attending the meeting were Elaine Olsen, Amy Maberry and Barbara Jaques.

"Nineteen Eighty-Four" by George Orwell. "The most powerful and terrifying novel I have read in years. Orwell's brilliant and despairing glimpse into the totalitarian future plumbs the depths of human pride and degradation more vividly than anything since Dostoevsky's Grand Inquisitor," comments Arthur Schlesinger, Jr.

"Alfred Hitchcock Presents Stories for Late at Night." A specialist in the macabre and bizarre, Hitchcock presents 21 stories, two novelettes and a complete novel guaranteed to terrify most normal people.

TEENAGE BOOKS

"The City Under Ground" by Suzanne Martel. The author uses a vivid story of the future to stress the importance of spiritual understanding in a highly mechanized society.

"With All My Love" by Penny DeFore. The true story of Penny DeFore, a young girl who goes half-way around the world to work in a Korean orphanage, seeking the true meaning to life.

"Gold on Her Shoulder" by Caryl Hall. A young woman enters the strange world of the Woman Marines and discovers excitement and challenge.

"Twilight Zone Revisited" by Rod Serling. Thirteen new and unforgettable explorations into the realm of the supernatural.

"The Swiss Family Robinson" by Johann Wyss. The Robinson family, marooned on an amazing island, soon learn to love and live on their "New Switzerland."

"Israel" by Robert St. John. From the "Life World Library," this book informs the reader of the ancient country's history and its position as a modern and maturing nation.

"Japan" by Edward Seidensticker. Also from "Life World Library," the author and editors of Life present an up-to-date report on the country of Japan.

JUNIOR BOOKS

"Jupiter and the Cats" by Alice Goudey.

"Plastic Foam for Arts and Crafts" by Brock Yates.

"Papier Mache and How to Use It" by Mildred Anderson.

"The Beach Before Breakfast" by Maxine W. Kumin.

"Dandelion" by Don Freeman.

"Automobiles for Mice" by Marie Hall Ets.

"The Wild Swans" by Hans Christian Andersen.

"Down, Down the Mountain" by Ellis Credle.

"Mister Penny's Circus" by Marie Hall Ets.

WILSONS IN COLORADO

A note was received in the Journal office Saturday morning from Dorothy Wilson, asking that Nyssa's hometown newspaper be sent to her in Colorado.

She stated that the family missed reading news of Nyssa and until around mid-August their address will be 1844 11th Avenue, Greeley.

PLAN STEAK FRY TONIGHT

Members of the Adrian American Legion and auxiliary are planning a steak fry at 7 o'clock this evening (Thursday) in the Adrian park. All Legionnaires of post 109, their wives and auxiliary members are invited to attend.

VISITOR FROM MONTANA

Mrs. W. W. Russell of Largslan, Mont., visited several days last week with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Stunz and other relatives.

Oregon Trail HEC Plans Summer Events

Oregon Trail Home Ec club members met June 22 at the home of Mrs. Orland Cheldelin with 13 members in attendance. Mrs. Fred Jones of Los Angeles was a guest.

Roll call was answered by each member telling of differences in present household appliances and of those in use at time of her marriage.

Plans were completed for a float to be entered in the July 9

CATS... NINE LIVES??

Arcadia — The misfortune of having both hind legs amputated when three years old did not shorten the life of a cat belonging to the Meridean Robbins family. The pet died last week at the age of 15 years.

Former Nyssa Youth Gets Business Degree

A master's degree from Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration has been received by William Walker Low, Jr.

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Low who resided in Nyssa several years ago when the former was employed at Amalgamated Sugar company.

The degree recipient was graduated from Nyssa high school with the class of 1956 and from 1958-61 served a mission in Sweden for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

Low was graduated in 1963 from Brigham Young university with a bachelor of arts degree in industrial management and has accepted a position with Simpson Timber company in Seattle.

He is married to the former Ra-cel Morse of Boise.
