

'Spinners' to Show Processing of Beets At Scout Roundup

Slate Rummage Sale
 On Saturday, July 3, members of Nyssa Girl Scout troops will hold a rummage sale in the old Journal building, located at 109 Main street. Sale hours will be from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and the girls announce that donated items for the sale will be greatly appreciated. Donors may contact Mrs. Clarence Clapp by dialing 372-3910 or Carol Greig, 372-3086, and the items will be picked up.
 Proceeds will be added to funds making it possible for the girls to attend the International Roundup.

ORIN SUMNER, owner of Nyssa Pharmacy, poses with a lovely bathing beauty. Members of the Journal staff know who she is, but will not reveal her identity lest Orin's wife, Barbara, disapproves. Will have to admit, she was a real traffic stopper as she stood at the corner of Second and Main streets in an area where the blacktop had been removed by city crews. The street is now repaired and the lovely creature has apparently left town.

ATTEND ALEXANDER RITES
 Among out-of-town relatives and friends here to attend Tuesday funeral services for Earl Alexander were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tubbs, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Alexander, Madras; Mr. and Mrs. Wally Vanderhoff and Sandi, Homedale; Mrs. Fred Kiser and Sherry, Jerome; Mrs. D. R. Samuel and Miss Jan Gregg, Billings, Mont.; Mrs. Charles Paulin, Theresa, Rita, Joe and Mike, Caldwell.

FORMER RESIDENTS VISIT
 Mr. and Mrs. Allan Butler of Seattle, former Nyssans, visited recently with relatives and friends in this area.

Early-Day Students Vote to Make Picnic Annual June Event

Approximately 40 persons were in attendance at the picnic held Sunday in south park for students and teachers who were affiliated with Nyssa schools up to and including 1920.

The group voted to make the reunion picnic an annual affair to be held on the last Sunday in June.

A special guest at the Sunday event was Dr. J. J. Sarazin. Out-of-state guests included those from California, Washington and Idaho.

It has been noted by those attending the gatherings that much greater interest is shown by those from out-of-state than by local residents.

LEGION AUXILIARY PLANS FRIDAY INSTALLING RITES

American Legion auxiliary officers of Nyssa post 79 will be installed during a meeting to be held at 8 o'clock Friday evening, July 2, at the community hall, located at Second street and Ehrgood avenue.

Special guests will be members of the Adrian auxiliary unit.

KOCHS REPORT ARRIVAL OF NEW GRANDDAUGHTER

City Manager Fred Koch received word recently of the birth of a daughter to his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stephan of Ft. Collins, Colo. The infant was born June 26 and has been named Jane Ann. She joins three sisters in the home. Mrs. Koch left last week for Ft. Collins to visit her daughter's family and to help care for the new baby.
