

School Teachers From The Dalles United in Early June Church Rites

MR. and MRS. GEORGE GALE COLEMAN

Yellow and white floral arrangements and candelabra containing lighted tapers provided the altar setting for a June 5, 1965, wedding ceremony uniting Miss Patricia Ann Werner and George Gale Coleman.

The 2 o'clock afternoon double-rites were performed by the Rev. John P. Ginter in the First Methodist church at The Dalles, and were witnessed by 100 guests. Soloist was Mrs. William David, Jr., accompanied by Mrs. Roy Kunsman.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. George R. Werner of Rancho Cordova, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. George T. Coleman, former residents of the Arcadia area now residing in Ontario.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white lace, with matching lace mantilla. She carried a cascading bouquet of yellow roses, pearl-centered Stephanotis and chiffon leaves.

Miss Nancy Smith of The Dalles attended as maid of honor, while bridesmaids were Miss Janet Coleman, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Linda Long of The Dalles. Their floor-length gowns were of mint green whipped cream, designed with fitted bodices. They wore matching headpieces and each carried a single, long-stemmed Golden Wave rose.

Christine Wilson of Parma, wearing a dress matching those of other lady attendants and daisy crown, served as flower girl. She carried a basket containing yellow and white daisies and moss-green velvet leaves.

Candle lighters were Master Stanley and Miss Lucinda Earnshaw of Granger, Utah. The latter was dressed identical to the flower girl. Ring bearer was Master Mark Werner of Rancho Cordova, Calif.

Clifford Coleman of Stayton, Ore., served as best man, while ushers were Thomas Earnshaw of Granger and Clayton Wilson of Parma.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Werner wore a frock of beige and white lace. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a dress of pastel brocade. Each wore a corsage fashioned from Golden Wave roses.
