Missouri Rites Held For Joseph T. Brock

Joseph T. Brock, 71, succumbed Saturday morning, July 17, 1965, at the home of his only son, Delno Brock of route 1, Nyssa.

He was born Sept. 14, 1893, at Mano, Mo., and when a very young man came with Grant Aldridge to the Boise valley and began hauling poles for some of the first electric highlines.

He then returned to Missouri and on Feb. 6, 1914, was married to Cordelia Skelton at Eagle Rock. They came west to the Roswell area in 1915 and except for brief intervals resided there and at Emmett until 1942 when they moved to the Big Bend community.

In 1949 the couple returned to Neosho, Mo., and in 1964 celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. His wife succumbed on April 10, 1964, and Mr. Brock returned last November to reside with his son near Nyssa.

In addition to his son, he is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Lucille Easley of Cassville, Mo.; two brothers, Fred of Parma, Idaho, and Sam Brock of Hermiston, Ore.; two sisters, Mrs. Viola Ray of Oklahoma City and Mrs. Elsie Petty of Cassville.

Also surviving are three grand-

Martin Family Voices Expression of Thanks

We, the wife, sons, parents and brothers of Lennie E. Martin, wish to express our sincere appreciation to residents of the community for the many acknowledgments of sympathy during our recent period of bereavement.

The numerous kind deeds of neighbors and friends will never be forgotten.

Special thanks go to Pallbearers George Cartwright, Tony O'Conner, Melvin Crocker, Vern Parker, Bob Patterson and Glenn Ward, and to the Rev. Paul Yador for their participation during the funeral service.

We feel that the beautiful military rites conducted by American Legion Post 109 were very appropriate for an ex-Marine who served during World War II.

We deeply appreciate each willing hand and strong shoulder for support given in our time of need.
