Due to the late-hour death of Bill Kohl on Tuesday, July 13, a photograph of him was not readily available for last week's issue of the Journal. For family and friends, the publishers print this picture of the popular owner of Brownie's cafe, in casual attire as all will remember him as he prepared for his numerous camping, fishing or hunting trips. He was known by all as a great outdoorsman and fond of the rugged Owyhee country.

IN APPRECIATION

We take this opportunity to thank publicly friends and relatives for their many kindnesses expressed in thought and deed following the death of our loved one.

To Nyssa Eagles, members of the Eagles auxiliary and Rebekah lodge, we extend our deepest gratitude for their assistance in so many ways. We also want to thank Drs. L. A. Maulding, D. W. Sarazin and K. E. Kerby for their many considerations.

We shall always remember the many thoughtful acts performed by each and every one.
