

Nyssa Team Blanks Fruitland; Loses To Ontario in Little League Tourney

Nyssa blanked Fruitland 18-0 in the Wednesday evening four-inning contest of the Little League tournament held last week in Ontario. Rick Wilson took the spotlight as outstanding player when he hit two home runs and pitched a no-hit, no-run game.

Getting the Nyssa team started were Keith Oldemeyer and Greg Michael who reached first on errors. Wilson then homered and the score read 3-0 at the end of the first inning.

Minor League Teams Compete in Tourney

A Minor League tournament is currently under way at Kiwanis park in Ontario. In the Tuesday contest, Nyssa was pitted against a team from Middleton and lost the game by a 9-2 final score.

Ronald Moffis led the hitting for the local team with a triple. Roy Belveal was on the mound and Rodney Rhoades behind the plate for Nyssa.

The local youths are scheduled to meet New Plymouth at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Cow Hollow Defeats Ontario

The Cow Hollow team won over Ontario No. 1 by a 10-4 final tally in Tuesday's contest. Pitcher Darrell Cleaver allowed only one hit in the ball game. Jay Gibson was behind the plate for the Cow Hollow team. These boys were scheduled to meet Vale at 5 p.m. Wednesday but results of the contest were not known at Journal press time.

This is a double elimination tournament with semi-finals scheduled for Friday evening and the final contests slated Saturday.

Ontario Youth Takes Honors in Golf Play; Team Places Second

Alan Cottle of Nyssa, together with Mike and Bob Taylor, Bob Lzicar and Golf Pro Vern Burks of Ontario, placed second in the Pro-Junior tournament held early last week on the Hillcrest Country club course in Boise.

Burks fired a 73 to tie with Ken Sparks of the Broadmore Country club in Nampa for third place in the professional sweepstakes.

Cottle and the Taylor lads also participated in qualifying trials of the Idaho-Oregon United States Junior Golf competition, sponsored by the U. S. Golf association.

Mike Taylor, 14, son of the Norm Taylors, shot a 77 for third place and gained a berth in the Aug. 3-7 nationals contest at Wilmington, Del.
