

Marsha Willis and Danny Richardson Wed in Recent Adrian Church Rites

At 8:30 o'clock in the evening on July 16, 1965, at the Adrian Presbyterian church, Miss Marsha Willis became the bride of Airman First Class Danny Richardson.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Willis of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Richardson of Desha, Ark.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Elmer Rosenkilde in the presence of 112 guests. Floral arrangements of pink and white gladioli provided the altar setting and the voice of Shirlene Teter echoed wedding songs, accompanied by Judy Teter. Nuptial music was furnished by Mrs. James Phifer.

Miss Willis was escorted to the altar by her father, and was attired in a floor-length gown of white satin. The fitted bodice was fashioned with long tapered sleeves and a row of pearls graced the neckline.

Her bouffant veil was secured to a tiny jeweled tiara and she carried a cascading bouquet designed with an orchid, encircled by pink rosebuds.

Attending as maid of honor was Penny Wisbey, with Cathy Samer and Bonnie Steiner as bridesmaids. They were dressed in rose and pink gowns, trimmed with white lace, and carried nosegays of pink roses and white carnations.

Michele McGinnis and Lynn Witty, wearing dresses of rose and white lace, attended as flower girls. Ring bearer was Jay McGinnis.
