Hamilton Hopefuls Take Championship Title in Golf Tourney

With two wins and two losses each, the final of five two-man golf matches for the twilight league championship title began at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon between the Hamilton Hopefuls and O'Kief Outcasts. It was nip and tuck all the way around the 18-hole Ontario course as Hopeful Ted Brammer and Outcast Dale Keeney battled to win championship honors for their respective teams. The holes were even as they teed off on No. 18. Results on the final green ended with a par for Brammer and a one over par bogie for Keeney, and the Hopefuls emerged as winners. The stage had been set earlier, however, as wins had been posted for the Hopefuls by Earl Walker over John Easley and by Ken Lucas who won his match from John O'Kief. The winning team's two losses came when Bill Hamilton went down at the hands of Tony Yturri and Glade Chadwick was defeated by Louis Yturri.
