Over 500 guests were present for the Aug. 7, 1965, wedding ceremony uniting Miss Bonnie Lucille Steiner and Ralph Leavitt. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Wallace F. Steiner of Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leavitt of Nyssa.

Before an altar graced with white gladioli and lighted white tapers, the rites were performed at 8:30 o'clock in the evening by the Rev. Elmer Rosenkild at Kingman Memorial United Presbyterian church in Adrian.

Wedding music was played by organist Mrs. Veri Bishop, with Mrs. Mark Hartley as soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Jim Phifer.

Miss Steiner was escorted to the altar by her father and was attired in a floor-length gown of delustered satin, fashioned with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, long lily-point sleeves and tiny covered buttons down the back. The gown was trimmed with trailing motifs of re-embroidered lace from bust line to midway of the skirt which fell into a chapel train.

Her bouffant veil was secured to a tiny jeweled tiara and she carried a cascading bouquet containing a white orchid and red roses.

Miss Judy Steiner was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of red crystaletta and long white gloves. Dressed in street-length gowns of like material and design were bridesmaids Vicki DeHaven, Margaret Zamora, Anne Case and Florene Kygar. Each lady attendant carried a cascading bouquet of red carnations.

Also dressed in red were flower girls, Cassie and Carrie Hardin. They carried white lace baskets filled with rose petals.

Burnell Stelling served as best man, while ushers were Mike Roberts, Charles Stelling, Wayne George and Jack Steiner. Danny Walker was ringbearer, and the candles were lighted by Jackie Case and Ellen White, dressed in red with corsages of white carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Steiner wore a suit of white silk and rayon, trimmed in blue, and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a pink ensemble with beige accessories and each wore an orchid corsage.

A reception was held in the church basement following the ceremony. Assisting with serving, gifts and guest registration were Marilyn Parker, Marilyn Shields, Cathy Samer, Angie Mendazona, Linda Brewer, Marilyn Nishahara, Lisa and Tami Winn, Mrs. E. E. Cameron, the Mmes. LeRoy and Harvey Bennett.

Among out-of-area guests were those from Tablerock, Neb.; Bozeman, Mont.; Baker, Ore.; Oreana, Grandview, Boise and Burley, Idaho.

The new Mrs. Leavitt was graduated from Adrian high school, is now studying at Treasure Valley Community college in Ontario and was a member of Job's Daughters, Nyssa Bethel 33.

The bridegroom attends Nyssa high school and is presently employed by J. C. Watson company at the local plant.

For her travel costume, the bride chose a white suit with green accessories and after a wedding trip to Boise, the newlyweds are now residing at 103 North Third street in Nyssa.

SEUELLS EXTEND THANKS

We extend our sincere appreciation to neighbors, other friends and relatives for numerous beautiful cards and gifts in recognition of our 25th wedding anniversary. And the pleasant day of fellowship will never be forgotten.

Greeting Party For Newlyweds Dated Saturday

MRS. MARVIN PETT
... Wed in Logan Temple

A party to greet newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin E. Pett will be held between the hours of 8 and 10 o'clock Saturday evening, Aug. 21, at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Taft Pett on route 2, Parma.

Miss Diane Bowen became the bride of Marvin E. Pett during a double-ring ceremony performed Friday, Aug. 13, 1965, in the LDS temple at Logan, Utah. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. LaVar Bowen of Malad, Idaho.

A reception was then held in the Malad LDS stake house, during which the bride was attired in a white gown of delustered satin, trimmed with flowers of applied lace, centered with seed pearls. The gown was fashioned with chapel train, and she carried a bouquet of rose-colored rosebuds and white carnations.

Dressed in a floor-length gown of rose crystaletta was the bride's twin sister, Suzanne Bowen as maid of honor. Wearing street-length dresses of the same material and design were bridesmaids, Randy Bowen, Kathy Gilgen, Kathy Christofferson, Nancy Waldron and Marcelle Pett. They all carried small baskets filled with pink and white chrysanthemums.

Clayton Pett served as best man, while ushers were Tom Pett, Clyde Roberts, Steve Vaughn, Randy Jones and Terrell Tovey.

For her daughter's reception, Mrs. Bowen wore a dress of rose-colored satin brocade and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a frock of pink embroidered crystaletta. Each wore a corsage of white carnations.

A four-tier wedding cake, decorated with wedding bells, centered the refreshment table.

The new Mrs. Pett was graduated from Malad high school and attended Utah State university at Logan. Her husband is a Parma high school graduate and studied at Boise Junior college.

After a trip to Yellowstone park the newlyweds will be at home in Malad where they are both employed.

cleaning, not the pressure. Bearing down on the wand tips the front of the nozzle and breaks the vacuum seal. Then the dirt is not pulled up.

Just guide the cleaner along, keep the nozzle flat and you will pick up more dirt. Other possible causes for failure to draw up dirt are: the dust bag is full and should be replaced; the hose may be stopped up with lint.

Reception for Newlyweds Follows Mid-July Rites in LDS Stake House

MR. and MRS. JIM TRACY
—Portrait by Schoen.

Bishop Howard R. Bair performed a double-ring ceremony uniting Miss Sue Olsen and Jim Tracy at 8:30 o'clock in the evening on Friday, July 16, 1965, at the Nyssa LDS stake house.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. J. O. (Brig) Olsen of route 2, Nyssa; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tracy, who reside at 302 North Fifth street.

Approximately 350 guests attended the reception following the ceremony, with basket arrangements of pink and white gladioli and large pink ribbon bows providing the floral setting. Marjorie Peterson was soloist and was accompanied by her daughter, Vickie.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a white floor-length gown of peau de soie, designed and made by herself and her mother.

Her bouffant veil was secured by a large fabric rose and she carried a bouquet of pink cymbidium orchids, white stephanotis with trailing ribbon streamers.

Dressed in afternoon frocks of pink peau de soie were Gail Flinders as maid of honor; Berniel Schulthies, Cheryl Young of Reno, Nev., and the bridegroom's twin sisters, Cindy and Cille Tracy, as bridesmaids.

They carried small net and white-lace baskets containing pink rosebuds and white daisies. Attired in a gown identical to other attendants was Julietta Garner as flower girl.

Dick Tracy served as best man for his brother, while ushers were Ronnie Barker; Johnny Hite; Chad Olsen, the bride's brother; and Mike Peterson, her cousin.

For her daughter's wedding and reception, Mrs. Olsen wore an afternoon frock of whipped cream in floral design and the bridegroom's mother was attired in an ensemble of salmon color. Each wore a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

Don Bowers was master of ceremonies for the program including songs by Ron and Steve Jensen; Georgia Peterson, Sherrie Glenn and Marilyn Lewis; Mary and Carol Pond.
