OPPOSITES . . .

Some hoist the windows, gasp for air,
While others find it chilly.
Some turn up thermostats a hair,
While others think them silly.
Some like it cold, some like it hot,
Some freeze, while others smother.
And by some fiendish, fatal plot,
They marry one another.

—Richard Armour

CRaZY DAY

A mother demanded of her seven-year-old, "What are you reading?"

"A Story about a cow jumping over the moon," was the reply.
"Throw that book away at once!" commanded the mother.
"How often have I told you you're too young to read science fiction?"

CRaZY DAY

Why is it—You shake and shake the catsup bottle;
None will come and then a lot??

CRaZY DAY

The young lady of Boston, Mass Was in water up to her ankles.
(It doesn't rhyme now,
But wait till the tide rolls in.)

CRaZY DAY

The nicest thing about the future is that it always starts tomorrow.
