

Gifts Planned for Ailing President By Modern Pioneer Club Members

By Mrs. Wilson Witt
NEWELL HEIGHTS — Modern Pioneer club meeting was held Nov. 3 at the home of Mrs. M. L. Judd with 13 members attending. Lydia Worden was in charge of the meeting due to the absence of the president and vice president.

During roll call the women answered this question "If it was 1843 and you were going west by wagon train, what precious thing would you insist on taking along?" Some of the items mentioned were the Bible, camera, quilts, jewelry, family albums and dishes. One member said she would take her husband.

The need of markers for pioneers buried on the Farr place was discussed. Plans were made for each member to take or send a gift to the club's president, Mrs. R. D. McKinley, who has been ill.

Next meeting will be Dec. 1 at the Worden home. It will be the Christmas meeting and gift exchange, with no gift to cost more than $1.

An internationally esteemed vocalist once said, "Martha Schlamme has a communicative power that cannot fail to move." More than a compliment, this is an insight into why she can sing in 12 languages and still make her songs compelling. The vocalist doesn't present folk songs in the manner of a folk singer, but rather as a concert performer. She is a perfectionist and believes in adapting songs to her own voice, always adhering to their essential meanings and moods.
