THE BICYCLE PRIZE SUBSCRIPTION

Campaign Ends SATURDAY NIGHT

Details of the Final Count

READ ALL OF THIS Thoroughly

In order to maintain the utmost secrecy as to the number of subscriptions and votes secured by each candidate during the last three days of the campaign the race will be brought to a close under a sealed ballot box system. No subscriptions or money will be accepted from candidates during the last three days of the campaign; instead the candidates will deposit their final collections and subscriptions in the sealed ballot box located in the office of this newspaper. The campaign manager will collect from subscribers who come to the office to pay and will put slips and money in the ballot box for whatever candidate the subscriber designates to receive credit. If any candidates cannot come to the office they may mail their report to the campaign manager who will see it gets in the sealed box, providing it arrives by the closing hour. Candidates will have access to this sealed ballot box any time.

The candidates will simply place their money and subscriptions in an envelope which will be furnished them, and deposit it in the sealed ballot box. This means that no one but the candidates will know what they do these last three days, until the campaign has been officially declared ended and the ballot box is opened by the judges for the final count. This assures fairness to the nth degree. The winners will be determined by the judges merely adding the votes and points for the subscriptions contained in the sealed ballot box, to each candidate's total up to last Wednesday night as shown by their individual signed statements. Every effort will be made to finish the final count Saturday night, and a bulletin will be placed in the window of this newspaper office early Sunday morning showing the final standings of the candidates.
