Student Creativity Stressed at Meeting Of Upsilon Chapter

Upsilon chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma meeting was held Friday evening, Nov. 20, at the Thunder Egg room in Vale with approximately 30 members present for a smorgasbord dinner. Tables were decorated with silver-winged birds, and Mrs. Jackie Ashby of Ontario had the lucky one and took home a lovely table centerpiece. The program, "Creativity in Physical Education," was presented by Miss Phyllis Roff of Vale. A creative dance featured three of Miss Roff's students, who presented a number of their own arrangements. Girls taking part were Misses Cherie Hyde, Linda Kohl and Pat Jones. Following the program, the regular business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Frances Bates, chapter president.

ELK HUNTER FINDS BEARS

While elk hunting Sunday in the Unity area with her husband, Bob Giles; her father, Kenneth Reece; a brother, Dan Reece; and his friend, Swede Mason, Mrs. Bob (Sharlene) Giles came face to face with a pair of bears.

She was alone at the time and said she was scared half to death. The furry animals soon walked off, and apparently didn't see her.

Those who know Sharlene as a top-notch waitress at a local cafe and are aware of her never-ending witty remarks, probably will agree that if the bears had seen her, they would have run instead of walk, because they couldn't have gotten ahead of her no matter how hard they tried.

The five hunters returned home with no elk.

To Subscribers Of Gate City Journal

To Journal readers who renewed their subscriptions during the recent bicycle campaign, the front office gals (Earlene and Arlene) ask for a little patience on mailing stencil date changes.

The stencils are being altered. However, due to the large volume of renewals, the job will take some time. "If you are getting your Journal . . . please don't worry . . . we are sure that every renewal payment was turned in!"
