Okanogan Presbyterian Church Rites Unite Luedd Pratt, David E. Witty

MR. and MRS. DAVID EARL WITTY

Miss Luedd Lynn Pratt became the bride of David Earl Witty during an evening ceremony performed Monday, Dec. 27, 1965, in the Presbyterian church at Okanogan, Wash.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Paul T. Pratt of Okanogan; Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Witty of the Big Bend area near Adrian.

The Rev. James E. Caulkins, assisted by the Rev. Roger Miesmer of Omak, Wash., performed the double-ring rites before an altar graced with basket arrangements of gold and white pompon chrysanthemums, white candelabra containing gold tapers and bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of delustered satin, made by Mrs. George Lucas of Omak, Wash. Her veil of white illusion was held by a cluster of white organza roses, trimmed with seed pearls. On a white Bible she carried a bouquet of white bridal roses and carnations. Underneath the bouquet was a white fan carried by both her mother and grandmother during their wedding rites.

Attending as maid of honor was Miss Madeline K. Johnson of Spokane, while bridesmaids were Mrs. Jean Hunter of Pendleton and her twin sister, Miss Judy Chalmers of Lake Oswego.

They wore floor-length gowns of gold crepe and carried bronze velvet muffs to which were attached small gold pompon mums. John Steiner, the bride's cousin, and Linda Spears, niece of the bridegroom, were candlelighters.

Ben Witty of Parma served as best man for his brother, while ushers were Joe Witty, another brother; Bill Spears, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Bob Steiner, uncle of the bride; and David Steiner, her cousin.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Pratt wore a gold and green metallic jacket-dress of sheath design. The bridegroom's mother was attired in an ensemble of gold wool crepe, and each wore a corsage of gold roses.

At a reception held in the church social room, a four-tier cake on a heart-shaped base, graced the refreshment table.

In charge of serving, guest registration and gifts were Mmes. Wilson Zwiesler, William Spears, Bob Steiner, Merrit K. Bradley, Michael Vance, Melbourne Peterson and the Misses Carol Cunningham and Judy Pratt.

After a wedding trip into Canada, the newlyweds are now at home in Okanogan.

Sewing Instruction Information Sought By Extension Agent

Nyssa Extension unit members met Jan. 13 at the Methodist church to hear Miss Sally Meeuwesen, Malheur county extension agent, present the lesson on "A Will of Our Own."

The next meeting is slated for Feb. 10 and lesson topic will be "Short Cuts to Hot Meals."

Miss Meeuwesen would like to know if area women are interested in a sewing class or workshop to be conducted this spring. She will plan lessons according to desires of the group.

More information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Tom Takatori at 722-6331 or Mrs. Albert Hopkins at 722-5527. Both reside on route 2, Parma, Idaho.
