Miss Bernice Humble, W. Frank Parr United in Mid-January Ceremony

Bernice Humble and W. Frank Parr of Corvallis were united in marriage as dusk fell Saturday, Jan. 15, 1966. The double-ring rites were performed by Pastor Carl Nelson, in the fireplace room of the Unitarian church, overlooking the city of Eugene.

The bride was attired in a suit of blue crepe, blue velvet hat with petite veil, black accessories and carried a bouquet of dark red rosebuds and hyacinths. She also carried a white lace handkerchief, an heirloom of her family, and her pearl necklace was one worn by the bridegroom's mother at her wedding.

Attending the couple were the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, James and Jane Rigney. The latter wore a dress of black knit with black accessories and carried a bouquet of dark pink carnations.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Parr chose a dress of grey-blue crepe and black accessories, and with them wore a corsage of pale pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, a small reception was held in the James Rigney home at Eugene, with serving done by Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Roemer of Springfield, Ore.

Music was provided by Robert Clifton of the University of Oregon and his protegee, Anthony Rigney.

Following a brief honeymoon trip, the newlyweds are residing at 350 South 41st street in Corvallis. The bridegroom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parr of Nyssa, has been studying at Oregon State university since his discharge from the U.S. Air Force last September.
