Take the short cut to CONSTANT Hot Water

SWITCH TO NATURAL GAS

There's no need to experiment. There is one sure way to have hot water anytime and every time you want it. Depend on a gas-fired automatic water heater and you'll never be disappointed. In heating water, it's the FLAME that counts. Let the live, blue flame of natural gas deliver CONSTANT hot water in your home. There's no guesswork, no suspense. When hot water's needed, turn the tap... it's ALWAYS there! And in great abundance because natural gas water heaters recover their supply faster. They are space and money-savers, too. A smaller gas water heater will provide the same volume of hot water as your present, larger flameless heater. Lower first cost, lower fuel cost. Conversions are easy and inexpensive. Let a Cascade Man tell you more.
