

Virginia Lewis, William Mannewitz Exchange Vows in Salt Lake Temple

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM B. MANNEWITZ
—Portrait by Schoen.

A reception honoring newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. William Bruce Mannewitz, was held Jan. 28, 1966, in the Nyssa LDS stake house. The new Mrs. Mannewitz (nee Virginia Mae Lewis) is a daughter of Mrs. T. R. (Dorothea) Mitchell of Nyssa and the late Lloyd Lewis. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Mannewitz of Richardson, Texas.

The couple was married Wednesday, Jan. 26, in the Salt Lake City LDS temple by Elder Bruce R. McConkie. Among relatives and friends present for the double-ring ceremony were the bride's step-father and mother; the bridegroom's father; and former Nyssans, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zobel and son, Paige of Ogden, Utah, friends of the bride's family.

Two large basket arrangements of white football mums provided the setting for the local reception.

The bride was attired in a gown of chantilly lace over peau de soie, designed with train effect in back. She carried a cascading bouquet of white chrysanthemums, silver bells, American Beauty red ribbon, net and chenille spirals.

Attending her sister as matron of honor was Mrs. Don Bowers, while bridesmaids were another sister, Marilyn Lewis; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Dick Lewis; and Linda Haldeman, a college roommate.

They wore identical floor-length gowns of American Beauty red slipper satin, matching headpieces of satin roses and tulle and carried snowball bouquets of white pompon mums and tufted white nylon net.

Serving as best man was Preston King of Nyssa, a college roommate of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mitchell wore a two-piece ensemble of blue lace and a corsage of pink carnations.

Master of ceremonies for the program was Douglas Lewis, the bride's brother; with Don Bates, Frank Turner and Gary Clawson singing "Ginny" and "Yellow Rose of Texas." They were accompanied by Miss Susan Schenk.

A combo selection, "More," was presented by Dee Farr on the piano; Craig Lewis, trumpet; Rod Lewis, drums; and Lori Lewis, vocalist. "Walk Hand in Hand" and "It's So Nice to Have a Man" were sung by Lina Flake, Marilyn Lewis, Toni Fife and Susan Schenk, accompanied by Patty Urry.

Other selections included an original comical reading, entitled "From the Book of Ginny," by Iona Flinders, with vocal solos, "Through the Years" and "Hawaiian Wedding Song," by Patricia Skeen.

A four-tier white cake, trimmed with pink roses, pink wedding bells and white swans; floral arrangements containing pink candles, pink carnations and greenery, graced the refreshment table.

Assisting with serving, care of gifts and guest registration were Mrs. Robert Wilson and Vernon Hayhurst, the bride's aunts; Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. W. O. Peterson, Mrs. Dean Seward, Mrs. Jim Tracy and Mrs. Brig Olsen. Also assisting were Mrs. Richard Martin and Marianne Holman, cousins of the bride.

Among out-of-area guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Lewis of Stockton, Calif.; Douglas Lewis of Sacramento; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Martin (nee Judy Wilson) of
